CAN PERISHABLE FOODS; APPEAL TO HOUSEWIVES

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. WASHINGTON, June 22.—Secretary Houston today appealed to American housewives to assist the national food conservation movement by canning or preserving perishable fruits and vegetables. Pointing out that the ordinary harvest yield will be greatly increased this year by the "back-yard gardening" campaign, Houston declared that not to conserve this valuable food surplusage would be "a sinful waste."

SOCIALISTS SEND NOTE. COPENHAGEN, June 22.—A Budapest dispatch says that the Hungarian Socialists have received a telegram from the Reichstag, the Russian Socialists and the German Socialists, all of whom are in the same position.

WANT DISSOLUTION. PETROGRAD, June 22.—A resolution has been adopted by a small faction in the Soldiers' and Workmen's Congress calling for the dissolution of the Duma and the Council of the Empire. The action is based on the ground that in the early days of the revolution a group of Duma members took advantage of their parliamentary position to become the center of a tumult which was anti-democratic.

TO FIGHT TO END. WASHINGTON, June 22.—Russia will fight to the last ditch. There will be no separate peace between the new republic and the kaiser. Only a lasting universal peace, without annexations or contributions, will be recognized by the Russian government.

These promises were made to the United States and to the other allies of Russia by Boris Bakmeteff, ambassador of the new Russian government, in the first interview he has given since the arrival of the Russian mission in this country.

Ambassador Bakmeteff announced this as the policy of his government: "The provisional government, rejecting in accord with the whole people of Russia, all thought of separate peace, puts it openly as its deliberate purpose, the prompt achievement of universal peace, such peace to presume no dominion over other nations, no seizure of their national property nor any forced usurpation of foreign territory, peace with no annexations or contributions, based upon the free determination by each nation of its destinies."

"Being fully convinced that the establishment of democratic principles in its internal and external policy has created a new factor in the striving of allied democracies for durable peace and fraternity of all nations, the provisional government will take prompt steps for an agreement with her allies founded upon its declaration of March 21. The provisional government is conscious that the defeat of Russia and her allies would be the source of the greatest misery and would not only poison, but even make impossible, the establishment of universal peace on a firm basis."

TO SEEK VICTORY. "The provisional government is convinced that the revolutionary army of Russia will not allow the German troops to destroy our allies on the western front and then fall upon us with the whole might of their weapons. The chief aim of the provisional government will be to fortify the democratic foundations of the army, and organize and consolidate

RESIGNATION OF FURTADO IS DEMANDED

State Superintendent Johnson Tells the County Sealer He Must Quit or Be Removed

Grand Jury Finding in Regard to Inefficiency in Office Is Upheld; Fails to Improve

Declaring that proceedings for removal from office will be instituted unless a resignation is received today, State Superintendent of Weights and Measures Charles G. Johnson has demanded of County Sealer Joseph S. Furtado his resignation from office, to take effect on July 1.

"There are fifty-two county sealers under the jurisdiction of this department," wrote Johnson in a letter to Furtado, "and of all these your department in Alameda county has given me the most unpleasant concern."

"Your personal lack of initiative and executive ability to supervise properly the enforcement of the weight laws in your county has been a constant source of embarrassment to me. On several occasions I have personally been called upon to appear before the grand jury and to explain the inefficiency of your department."

"During the last two years this department has held annual conferences. At the first conference yourself and three of your deputies were present one day out of three, and during the last conference only one of your deputies was present. My urgent request for your attendance met with the reply that you could not afford to come."

KNOWLEDGE NOT ACQUIRED. "Soundest evidence since the inception of your department under my administration has constantly demonstrated your inefficiency. This condition was evidenced in your first commission to act as county sealer, when you were asked in part as follows: 'Would you ask that you transact all business through M. P. Scott, my chief deputy, until I have the knowledge required to discharge the duties of the office?'" Johnson said, "and your personal contact establish the fact that up to the present writing this knowledge has not been acquired."

"On several occasions you have told me that you were unable to establish your authority over your department as a natural result of which the efficiency of your department was demoralized. A period of probation was asked, during which this department would take no action. From time to time I have hoped that you would be able to handle the situation."

After quoting pertinent passages from the report of the grand jury, Johnson concluded his letter thus: "I beg to advise you that this department concurs in the report relative to your findings affecting your department. It is becoming of you and altogether proper, in view of these circumstances, that you tender your resignation, to take effect not later than the 1st of July."

"POLITICS," SAYS FURTADO. Furtado made the following comment upon the request for his resignation today:

"This letter is a malicious attack upon me and most uncalculated. I am fully competent in this position. A good deal more competent than others in the weights and measures service of this State. I shall ignore the letter, and deal solely with the board of supervisors, the body which appointed me, and which will remove me, if I am removed."

"There is politics behind this letter. If Johnson was sincere he would have given me an opportunity to resign, or at least to have made up my mind before giving publicity to the letter he has written to me. I characterize his action as a dirty piece of politics and will resign when the board of supervisors asks for it."

STORY IS DENIED. WASHINGTON, June 22.—A positive denial that a British steamer had brought German prisoners of war taken from a German commerce raider sunk in mid-Atlantic by a warship into an Atlantic port, was made by Secretary of the Navy Daniels today.

SORROWS OF BELGIUM ARE TOLD SENATE

"Broken Heart of Europe" Voices Tale of Wrongs at the Hands of Hordes of Kaiser

Lawmakers Strike the Mission From War-Cheer Land of Albert; Aid Is Being Promised

BY UNITED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. WASHINGTON, June 22.—Belgium, "the broken heart of Europe," spoke out its sorrows in the chamber of the Senate today.

Before a great throng in the galleries and on the floor, Baron Moncheur, chief of the Belgian mission to this country, related the story of bitterness and misfortune.

"It is only my great desire to express the gratitude which all Belgium feels toward the American people and their government for the aid which they have rendered to us," Moncheur said in an opening.

"You all know the unspeakable evils which have befallen my unfortunate country. The unpitied passion, the unrelenting determination, the unrelenting terror, the burning of many of our thriving cities and villages, and the massacre of thousands of our peaceful citizens."

IRON HAND FOLLOWS. "When followed by the hand of foreign nations, the German empire has contributed to the suffering of all provinces in Belgium."

"You also know the way in which this regime of oppression has been carried out. Out of 9,000,000 Belgians, only 1,000,000 are left. The rest have been deported, for the most part, to the German empire, where they are being used as slaves."

"You have learned of the deportation of our workmen into Germany. A crime the horrors of which should cause more indignation throughout the world. The German empire has been a source of suffering to all Belgium."

"The house will come, materially, to the aid of the Belgian refugees. The house will come, materially, to the aid of the Belgian refugees. The house will come, materially, to the aid of the Belgian refugees."

ROMANIAN ARRIVE. A PACIFIC PORT, June 22.—A Rumanian mission to Washington arrived today with the news that Rumania has raised and equipped a splendid new army of 600,000 that will be ready to take the field within a month. The mission, like the British, French, Italian and Russian missions, besides conferring with President Wilson, is charged with the responsibility of reconciling and organizing a large number of Rumanians into gun companies to be sent back to the eastern front, where it is said Russia will soon be in a position to resume the offensive.

The mission is headed by Count Vassile Stolica and Basil Lucal, member of the Rumanian diplomatic corps. They declare that Rumania is far from being crushed by the German invasion that resulted in the occupation of more than half of the country and the killing or capture of most of the original army.

ARMY OF HELPERS AT RED CROSS BOOTHS TO ASSIST IN GREAT CAUSE

By GENE BAKER.

All manner of people have been venturing into the stations where they are taking subscriptions for the Red Cross. Most of them come in opening their purses, taking out their check books. They ask all kinds of questions and state all kinds of opinions. Some of them are seeking employment at a large salary and some entertainment merely; but these are the very small minority.

The collecting is being done by and from curiously different individuals like these. Were you among them?

Freight cars—twelve of them—had run over him once and what was left was pitifully limited. His arms were stumps ending above the elbows and he came along on crutches because he only had one leg. But he had a happy humor that made a hero of him.

"Well, well," he smiled, standing in the doorway of the Red Cross tent where they were taking subscriptions to save other men from such fates as his on the battlefield, "do you think you could find a job for me?"

"What would you like to do?" asked the woman at the desk, wondering at his optimistic spirit. What could he do, she thought.

"Well," he said, "I think shorthand would be a good job for me, don't you?"

She caught the twinkle in his eye and she understood, but it made her throat a bit choked.

"I'm sure I could do typewriting some way or other if I knew how," he persisted, before he limped away to think it over.

"I'm sure you could," she said to herself. "Can you beat that kind of courage?"

There was great activity at the station where they meant to take subscriptions all day for the American army of mercy. Besides the head worker, the outside guard discovered two young girls—two very pretty girls, in white, dressed as nurses with the red crosses of that army on their sleeves.

"Don't they look beautiful?" the head worker demanded of the recruit who was there to help them. She nodded her head at her pseudo nurses.

"Believe me," the yeoman enthusiastically, although he was scarcely twenty. "I'll wait till I go out and get hurt!"

Over on the Alameda beaches there were swarms of pretty girls yesterday, as there always are on warm days. Many of them court the waves, but almost as many take out their love of the sea in wearing their bathing suits to lounge on the sand. One of the prettiest girls, however, was simply in street costume, and instead of looking tropically content, wore an air of most becoming anxiety.

It was with this look that she approached a stroller along the beach, hesitated and then broke into troubled speech.

"I—I find it awfully hard to do this," she looked appealingly at him and then in apparent shyness dropped her eyes. "But I've lost my nurse. And I've a desperate need of a dollar. Just go to have it. I can't explain. But could you let me have it?"

The man looked at her in amazement and experienced a sense of pleasure that out of so many men this beautiful creature had selected him to help her out of her difficulties. He produced the dollar at once, didn't he? Perhaps you were there? But did she look bashfully relieved at her rescuer?

No. She flashed a "thank you" at him and quickly—before he could grasp what she was up to, pinned a Red Cross button on his coat lapel.

After that he watched her with keen appreciation and cheered mentally every time she scored another victim. Not one or two, but every man she approached with her sad story came through like a gentleman at once. When they discovered the ruse they turned missionaries themselves.

"See that girl over there?" they'd ask some susceptible looking stranger idling near in the comfort of the sand. "Lost her purse. Needs money to get home to San Francisco. Some fellow ought to help her since I can't."

The susceptible stranger's sympathy would be stirred to its most sticky depths. He would draw near the lovely one in distress, buzz in circles nearby and finally rush up to offer his purse, Spanish fashion. When it was over he was tagged with a significant button.

More men joined the Red Cross that afternoon at the beach without consciousness of what they were doing than the first victim could keep track of. But none of them cared whether it had been ethical or not. They'd had their fun and they don't have to join again. Subscribing might have been less entertaining.

She WAS a pretty girl!

Substitute Food Bill Is Defeated in House

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. WASHINGTON, June 22.—Forecasting final approval of the food control bill substantially as it came from committee, the House today defeated a substitute bill offered by Representative Tower of Iowa, Republican, on a viva-voce vote with but a few members voting affirmatively. The substitute eliminated the "license section" of the bill, and instead of delegating food control powers to the President and a food administrator, merely made it a penal offense to hoard, monopolize, unlawfully enhance the price of, speculate in or interfere with the production and transportation of foodstuffs, fuels and "other necessities of life."

Any delay in the passage of the administration food bill will be charged to the Senate. The House is bending every effort to pass the measure by an overwhelming majority tomorrow night, but the Senate has been delaying the bill with perfunctory speeches. The rejection of amendments which would have brought clothing, shoes, cottonseed oil and farm machinery under the regulatory provisions of the bill in the House. The decision of the Republican conference to take no stand on the bill clears the way for passage of the measure by the House without more than fifty opposing votes, according to Representative Lever.

SUFFRAGE PICKETS AT CAPITAL SUPPRESSED

Two Leaders Are Arrested for Carrying Banner; Women to Test Legality of Police Action

WOMEN CHARGED WITH OBSTRUCTING TRAFFIC

Suffragette Says Defiance of Authority Will Continue; Is Congratulated by Russian

BY UNITED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. WASHINGTON, June 22.—Police today put an end to all suffrage picketing of the White House.

Following two days' near-rioting, Major Pullman issued strict orders against permitting the militants to flaunt their banners, or to stand before the White House.

Shortly after the issuance of the order, three patrolmen and two policewomen, after trying peacefully to dissuade Miss Lucy Burns, militant leader, and Miss Catherine Morey, of Boston, from unfurling a big yellow banner before the White House gates, arrested them and took them to headquarters.

The women clung desperately to their yellow banner, bearing a quotation from one of President Wilson's speeches on democracy. The inscription on it read:

"We are fighting for the things we have held nearest our hearts—for democracy—for the right of those who submit to authority to have a voice in their own government."

"You must move on," said the patrolman. "You can't stand here with that standard."

THE ARRESTED BY WOMEN. The two policewomen then stepped up and argued for a moment with Miss Burns.

"Wouldn't you rather give up the banner and move on than be taken in?" said the officer.

"You can't take away this banner; it's private property," said Miss Burns. "We will keep it. It is private and we have the right to stand here. Our position is logical and constitutional. Yours is illogical and unconstitutional."

The second policewoman tried to get Miss Morey, a frail, little girl, to give up the fight.

"No, I won't," she snapped, her face lighted with defiance. "You have no right to do this."

The two policewomen took the suffragists and their banner in charge. The arrested suffragists were released shortly after arriving at police headquarters. Before being released they were warned against further attempts to picket.

The women were charged with obstructing traffic and told they would have to appear later to defend the charge.

The police told the two women that other charges might be made against them, though they refused to say what these might be. Pullman granted them the right to get counsel and they returned to suffrage headquarters, where Miss Burns declared the police had violated her rights, inasmuch as peaceful picketing was proper and that it had been in effect since January 9 without interference.

WILL TEST LEGALITY. While the women were under arrest other women at their headquarters prepared a denunciatory Russian banner of canvas which could not be easily torn, but Miss Alice Paul indicated that the picketing would cease for the time being until a test had been made of the present case.

The reason for the police order today became apparent when Miss Alice Paul, detaining a talk with Major Pullman, admitted that she had said she wished to "articulate the unrest in this country on the suffrage question," and that if this effort to promote universal suffrage failed, she would then the fault was the government's and the women would continue their work.

Pullman had served notice on the women at 9:30 that they could not continue their picketing. Then he strung a line of patrolmen and policewomen from suffrage headquarters a block away from the White House up to and along the avenue on which the mansion fronts.

"The period of leniency has passed," he said after issuing this order.

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED. Pullman's talk with Miss Paul was over the telephone. He showed plainly he meant business and that he had accepted the challenge militants have hurled at him.

The following letter was received today by Miss Paul from N. A. Bessaraboff of the Russian commission: "Miss Alice Paul: 'My Dear—I have just read about the deplorable incident near the White House. 'From all my heart and soul I am proud of the courage of American women, who so boldly demand real liberty and democracy. 'I pray all good forces in the world to give you the courage to stay unshaken, to find in the high ideals unlimited forces of joy, helping you not to fall down spiritually. 'I am proud of Miss Burns and Mrs. Lever who stood so courageously despite the angry crowd. 'In Russia different kinds of oppressors did the very same thing as American police do now. Yet a real liberty was won and there are no forces on the earth which could improve humanity from it. 'With deepest respect and admiration, N. A. BESSARABOFF, 'Junior Inspector of Russian Artillery Commission.'"

GREEKS EXPELLED. PARIS, June 22.—A despatch to the Hava Agency from Athens says that Premier Gounaris, with thirty other prominent Greeks who were ordered expelled from Greece, including M. Dragoumis, son of ex-Premier Dragoumis and once minister to Petrograd, embarked today.

DRAFT LAW IS UPHELD ON TRIAL

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—After all of the technicalities involved in the effort to prove the unconstitutionality of the selective draft law had been swept aside by Federal Judge N. T. Dooling, Walter Nahl was sentenced today to ninety days in the county jail as a slacker and ordered to register. Nahl pleaded guilty after his counsel, Attorney Daniel O'Connell had unsuccessfully sought to obstruct the proceedings by presenting a demurrer.

Bakers Aid in Saving of Bread Loaves Cannot Be Returned

Co-operating with the National Commercial Economy Board in Washington, members of the Alameda County Master Bakers' Association are refusing to accept returns on stale bread from retail dealers. In this way, the claim is made, 10,000 loaves of bread every day are saved from waste in this county, the reduction in production having affected the supply formerly thrown aside by grocers and retail men and returned to the bakers.

More than 22,000 bakers throughout America, members of the American Master Bakers' Association, reached a similar agreement with the committee last week. For the most part bakers in other states will begin their refusal of stale bread on July 10, but local bakers have taken such action for several weeks. It is estimated that the efforts of the nation's bakers will net the country 200,000 rations of bread daily—or enough bread to feed 200,000 extra people.

The action of local bakers, together with that taken by the national body, will not only aid in the saving of wheat and other materials, but will enable the government to obtain the services of all surplus labor for work in the several fighting branches.

At a meeting Wednesday night in Hotel Oakland the master bakers endorsed the economy board's move. Adolf Schwedheim is president of the local organization, Harris West, vice-president and N. G. Bracken, secretary-treasurer.

DIRECTOR BAKER COMING ON VISIT

Raymond T. Baker, director of the mint at Washington, will arrive on a visit to his former home here tomorrow afternoon or Sunday. His mother, Mrs. George W. Baker, of 213 Mountain avenue, Piedmont, left Monday to meet her son at Reno, where he stopped off for several days on his way here from the mint.

Baker will make a stay of considerable duration here before returning to Washington, but whether his visit is in the nature of a vacation or in part a business trip, his friends do not know.

President Wilson appointed him director of the mint in February of this year. He was formerly warden of the Nevada State Prison and was later appointed as liaison secretary to Ambassador Marry when the latter became the nation's representative in Russia.

Baker received his education in the Oakland schools and has many friends here. His brother, George W. Baker Jr. is to marry Miss Carmen Ghilardi.

HEAVY RAIDS ON ARRAS FRONT MADE the armies fighting power for its defensive as well as offensive purposes."

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. The engagement between the French and the Germans, which was opened Wednesday by German attacks near Vauxaillon, southeast of Laon, is being continued spiritedly by the artillery, the infantry fighting having temporarily died down.

Paris today reports an extension of the artillery duel near Vauxaillon. It was raging last night along a front of approximately ten miles as far as the vicinity of Braye-en-Laonnois, reaching what the official report characterizes as "intensity."

"The infantry battle after initial successes for the German crown prince, came to a halt after his troops had lost virtually everything they had gained. Only one small salient remained in the German objective of attacks by one side or the other and along a much wider front appears an early probability.

In the Champagne area heavy fighting is in progress after the disappointing result of yesterday's operations by the Germans between Mont Cornillet and Mont Blond, in which the crown prince's forces were not only repulsed but afterward driven from their own positions, they attacked again last night at Teton Height. This assault also failed, Paris announces all the positions remaining in French hands.

Along the British front in France and Belgium only minor operations are reported. The British raids have been chiefly in the region between the Arras battle front and that of the recent advance in Belgium. This coming section of the German line projects little, the main objective of both the Arras and Messines drives.

On the Austro-Italian front General Cadorna apparently is exerting heavy pressure along a wide sector of the Trentino front, where Trento is the Italian objective.

S. Arena, proprietor of a saloon at 828 Broadway, has been cited to appear before the city council next Monday morning to show cause why his liquor license should not be revoked as the result of alleged sale of intoxicants to a minor youth.

In a report presented to the council today Chief of Police Petersen related that Thomas Jones, a 15-year-old boy, had been served with drinks at the saloon on the night of June 17 and later, in company with Harry Hardy, a mechanic, was arrested for alleged intoxication. Two days later Chief Petersen sent Jones back to the saloon in company with Corporal Herman Runetsch to ascertain whether or not he could obtain liquor without question. According to the report, Jones entered the place with the police officer watching, and was served beer without being asked any questions by either the bartender or the proprietor, it is alleged. The report further states that Arena was fined $250 on August 7, 1914, for selling liquor to minors.

Further investigation is being made by the police into the case involving Peter La Salle, a saloon man of 4601 East Fourteenth street, who is alleged to have sold considerable liquor to Eddie White last Tuesday night. The young woman was taken to the Emergency hospital suffering from alcoholism.

Mildred Gray, a 13-year-old girl who last night appealed to Captain of Inspectors Lou Agnew to assist her in locating her father, James Gray, from whom she has been separated since infancy, she says, has been turned over to the authorities at the Detention Home. An investigation is being made in an effort to locate the parent, who last wrote to his daughter from San Diego six years ago.

Recently Mildred was brought to the home of her stepmother, Mrs. Florence Gray, 415 Alameda street, from Sunnyvale, where she had been living for several years by Mrs. May L. Pitts, whom she knew as "grandmother." She did not adapt herself to the conditions of her new home, the authorities learned and has been staying with Mrs. C. Howard of 6430 Colby street, who she met one day when turned away from her stepmother's home.

The Detention Home authorities are greatly impressed with the girl's story. She related that when a small girl she lived in a cottage with her father and mother in Seattle. One day her mother disappeared and Mildred was left with friends in Seattle, who later sent her to Mrs. Pitts at Sunnyvale. She is exceedingly pretty and unless her father is located she will be found a home in some good family, the authorities say.

STRIKES IN SPAIN. BUEENOS AIRES, June 22.—General strikes have been called throughout Spain, according to a despatch from Madrid to Paris in Barcelona have been closed.

LOSES FIGHT FOR ESTATE OF HIS WIFE

Edmond L. Huston, after a long fight, has lost the estate willed to him by his wife, Mrs. Martha E. Huston, who died of polio on October 3 last at her home, 328 East Fifteenth St. The claim of Martin H. Farnham, a mere acquaintance, was given precedence over the will making the husband sole beneficiary of the estate by Superior Judge William S. Wells today.

Although never placed on record, a deed executed by Mrs. Huston transferring an estate valued at $10,000 to Farnham was held valid by Judge Wells, on the testimony of the notary who witnessed the transaction. Evidence was submitted by the claimant to prove that the property transfer was a regular proceeding despite the fact that Mrs. Huston later destroyed her copy of the deed and gave the reality to her husband.

Mrs. Huston's death occurred a few months after she married Huston, her husband, who was many years her junior. The aged woman was found lying in the bedroom of her home by roomers who were attracted by her screams. She charged that her husband had given her poison.

The woman was torn and she told the police that he had stolen valuable papers and had escaped through the window. The police made an investigation. Huston was arrested, but was subsequently released after a coroner's jury returned a verdict that the aged woman had committed suicide and her husband was cleared of all blame.

OTHER CLAIMANT. Shortly before the death of the will was set for hearing, Mrs. Eva Turner of Nashville, Tenn., who claimed to be a daughter of Mrs. Huston, filed suit claiming the estate, and made the trip to California to prosecute her action. She lost the suit after a short trial, being unable to establish her claim.

Farnham, who, it is alleged, was only a neighborhood acquaintance who had done a few favors for Mrs. Huston, cutting wood for her fire and doing occasional chores around her home, was given a deed to the property on Fifteenth street on April 3, 1916. This, it showed in the evidence, was done by Mrs. Huston in the frequent quarrels between the woman and her young husband. The deed was left at the bank, both taking a receipt.

ASKS FOR RECEIPT. Two or three months later Mrs. Huston told Farnham that he had better give her his receipt to the deed because it might get lost, and she would place it in her safe deposit vault. Following this, Mrs. Huston, in good faith with her husband, gave him a deed of gift to the property, tearing up the one given to Farnham.

Huston was formerly the proprietor of a cigar stand in front of the Mecca saloon on Broadway, but after the business shortly after Mrs. Huston's death and went to San Francisco.

RECRUIT CAMPAIGN OPENS TOMORROW. President Wilson in a proclamation has designated the week beginning tomorrow to June 30, as recruiting week for the United States army. The president has issued a call for 70,000 men and Oakland is expected to furnish its quota. The local recruiting stations have received copies of the proclamation and official orders pertaining to the week from Adjutant General McCain. The sergeant in charge of the local station stated this morning that the drive here for recruits would be launched tomorrow morning and that he expected that the men of Oakland would respond at once.

The president's action in designating the week was a request of the army officials, who have been seriously concerned over the slow rate of recruiting for the regular army.

Officially the regular army's strength can be brought to its whole strength of approximately 300,000 men by June 30 which will permit the War Department to carry out its plan in regard to the training of all the forces to be raised and also as to the dispatch of armies to France.

Recruiting in the United States Marine Corps in Oakland is progressing rapidly. The United States Marine Corps, which has its entire force in the city, is distributing Marine posters and advertising matter.

Roy Curtis, son of Bert L. Curtis, lieutenant in the Oakland police force, today applied for enlistment by the Marine Corps, but was rejected because of defective vision.

Betty, manager of the Ideal laundry, also applied and was accepted.

HOME OF JUDGE DAMAGED BY FIRE. The home of Superior Judge Frank B. Ogden, 2335 Valdez street, was damaged by fire shortly after noon today, when an overheated furnace set fire to the roof. Judge Ogden was burning rubbish in the furnace at the time. Sparks from the fire caught adjacent roofs, but were extinguished before material damage was done. The damage to the Ogden home from fire and water is estimated at several thousand dollars.

William Healing a fireman, living at 327 Alameda street, was severely injured when a fire engine, which was working gave way, precipitating him into the lower part of the house. He was removed to the emergency hospital, where he is suffering from fractured ribs and internal injuries.

RAIL HEADS TELL NEED OF NEW RATE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Railroad and bank officials of Oakland, San Francisco and Los Angeles, testifying today before the State Railway Commission in connection with the petition of the railroads for a 15 per cent increase in freight rates, agreed that the value of securities was depreciating. John Drum, president of the Savings Union Bank and a member of the re-organization committee of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway, in speaking of the conditions, said:

"In my opinion as a bank president, the condition of railroad securities is such that I would not invest in any one of the main lines at this time."

Drum explained that railroad securities were not nearly as attractive from the standpoint of investments as they were ten years, notwithstanding the fact that the railroad was the basis of the commercial development of the country. George Weeks, chairman of the executive committee of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway, and president of the National City company, testified that the fact that railroad securities were not now an attractive investment, was due to competition resulting from the war.

CITES CASES. The war government, he said, were offering 6 per cent interest on securities and also the same condition prevailed elsewhere. In Argentina, he testified, railroad securities were issued at 6 per cent and there was only 22 per cent of the capital as a bonded indebtedness. He added that the government stood behind the bonds.

Paul Shoup, president of the Pacific Electric Railway and in charge of the suburban lines of the Southern Pacific in Alameda county, declared that the interurban electric lines of the country were in a deplorable condition financially. He said that the proposed increase in freight rates would not offset the retail prices of commodities, except in a few instances.

"The trouble with the situation is," said Shoup, "that the investor believes there are too many claims on railroads in this country and the public thinks that there are not enough. In order that the investments may be made more attractive, an increase in revenue through a raise in rates is essential."

BENEFITS BY WAR. Charles M. Levey, president of the Western Pacific, was the last witness of the morning. He asserted that his road had benefited by the war. This was due to a boom in coal and copper and he thought was likely to continue. His opinion of the need for the proposed increase and the reasons therefor, coincided with that of the other witnesses.

Sound Kidneys Save Suffering

The hustle and bustle of modern life cause weak kidneys, because overwork and worry invariably create poison faster than the kidneys can possibly filter it from the blood. Pain in the back, nervousness, and lack of energy are the first warnings that the kidneys are giving out. If neglected, and for these conditions Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy should be used for beneficial action. For 40 years this dependable medicine has proved itself nature's provision for mankind against kidney disease and its oftentimes terrible effects. Here's an instance of its remarkable efficacy:

"Having been afflicted with kidney and liver complaint for over 20 years, I was induced to try Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy, and after using it for a time am now well and strong. I can unqualifiedly state that this medicine without any doubt saved my life and I can conscientiously recommend it to others similarly afflicted."—Clarence H. White, Battle Creek, Mich. U. S. A. Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy contains no harmful ingredients and should be used when the kidneys need attention. At all druggists. Sample sent on receipt of ten cents. The Difference Between Singing--and Making a Noise

There is as much difference between phonographs as there is between human voices.

Some can really sing—others merely make a noise.

A hand-organ, or a boy whistling in the street, can render a musical selection so that you can recognize it—but you could scarcely call it music.

One of the many features of

is its astonishing tone-quality. It has all the timbre, character and vitality of the living artist's voice. It does not merely resemble singing—it SINGS.

Come in here and test this claim for yourself. We have all models of the Edison Phonograph in stock.

We make purchase easy by very liberal terms.

If you will clip and mail this advertisement, we shall be glad to send you some literature about the New Edison, Model A, $100. Write name and address here:

POLICE TO SEEK MISSING PARENT

Mildred Gray, a 13-year-old girl who last night appealed to Captain of Inspectors Lou Agnew to assist her in locating her father, James Gray, from whom she has been separated since infancy, she says, has been turned over to the authorities at the Detention Home. An investigation is being made in an effort to locate the parent, who last wrote to his daughter from San Diego six years ago.

Recently Mildred was brought to the home of her stepmother, Mrs. Florence Gray, 415 Alameda street, from Sunnyvale, where she had been living for several years by Mrs. May L. Pitts, whom she knew as "grandmother." She did not adapt herself to the conditions of her new home, the authorities learned and has been staying with Mrs. C. Howard of 6430 Colby street, who she met one day when turned away from her stepmother's home.

The Detention Home authorities are greatly impressed with the girl's story. She related that when a small girl she lived in a cottage with her father and mother in Seattle. One day her mother disappeared and Mildred was left with friends in Seattle, who later sent her to Mrs. Pitts at Sunnyvale. She is exceedingly pretty and unless her father is located she will be found a home in some good family, the authorities say.

The damage to the Ogden home from fire and water is estimated at several thousand dollars.

William Healing a fireman, living at 327 Alameda street, was severely injured when a fire engine, which was working gave way, precipitating him into the lower part of the house. He was removed to the emergency hospital, where he is suffering from fractured ribs and internal injuries.

MCDONALD SUPPORTED BY POLICE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—That John McDonald, waiter and until the appearance of Frank C. Osmann, the only witness for the state positively to identify Warren K. Billings and Thomas J. Mooney as being at the scene of the prearranged bomb explosion, has been supported by the police for nearly a year, was the subject of a cross-examination during the trial of Mrs. Rena Mooney. McDonald admitted that his board and lodging had been paid for by the police, and that on one occasion his trousers were taken to Union Island, where he obtained employment, was advanced by a police officer who accompanied him on the journey there and back. That McDonald has been living on the fat of the land was indicated by his manner. French restaurant where he has been obtaining three square meals a day. He denied that he had received any money or that he handled the expenditures for his board and lodging.

McDonald was the chief witness for the day and testified positively that Warren K. Billings had placed the suitcase on the spot on Steuart street near Market, where the bomb later exploded.

Estelle Smith, whose identification of the Mooneys and Billings as being at 721 Market street made her the target for a sustained and searching cross-examination, was on the stand again today. Genevieve Yoell Parkhurst, Eugene Block and Frank Sheridan, reporters, were called to be identified by Mrs. Smith as to whether or not they had interviewed her. She remembered Mrs. Parkhurst, but denied that she had talked to her about the case and could not recall ever meeting the others.

She was asked regarding the disfigurement of a thumb nail which she noticed on the hand of Billings in the hallway of the building at 721 Market street, and said she had mentioned it to the district attorney before she ever saw the defendant.

PROFESSOR SAW SUITCASE.
George Robertson, professor of biology and geology of Redlands University, testified that he saw an automobile which he believed to be a Ford in front of 721 Market street. "I had been attending the summer school and accepted the invitation to come to San Francisco and see the parade. I had read that no autos were to be allowed on the street. I thought to myself, 'Why is the auto there with the parade coming?' I saw the auto on my left and later I saw a man climb into the front seat and drive it away towards the ferry. He wore a brownish gray or some sort of a dark gray suit. I also saw a suitcase near the entrance to the building at 721 Market street."

Lovely White Skin!
Strain lemon juice well before mixing and massage face, neck, arms, hands.

All means, girls, prepare a re-union lotion to keep your skin flexible and young looking. You will soon realize that true loveliness does not mean the powdery-look or waxen colorlessness of some hot-house flower, but is typified by the velvety softness of your skin, your peach-like complexion and rosy-white hands.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth, so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smoothen and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It should naturally help to whiten, soften, freshen and bring out the roses and hidden beauty of any skin. It is simply marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.—Advertisement.

WOMEN TO BE HONORED BY BRITISH KING

LONDON, June 22.—Orders of chivalry open to women will be one of the outcomes of the war. It is announced that in recognition of the manifold services rendered in connection with the war by British subjects and their allies, the king has been pleased to institute two new orders. The first is an order of knighthood styled "Order of the British Empire." The women will have the privilege of prefixing the title "Dame" to their names. The second order, which will be closely restricted as to numbers, will be entitled "Order of Companions of Honor."

MOOSE JOIN ARMY

RICHMOND, June 22.—Twelve members of the Moose Defenders of the Loyal Order of Moose have announced the sale of the colors, having enlisted in various branches of the service. At the meeting of the lodge last evening, the members voted unanimously to pay the dues of these patriotic members until the war is ended. Plans were made also to send a trip to London, where the Fourth of July when Moose from all parts of the state will celebrate "Moose Day" in that city.

HELD AS SUSPECT.
Irving Lemon is being held by the police upon suspicion of having knowledge of what became of a sack containing thirty crabs which disappeared from an automobile belonging to Robert Atwater of 1415 Grove street, when he left it standing at Twenty-second street and San Pablo avenue last night. Lemon was found by Corporal A. B. Smith loitering in the vicinity.

CONCERT TOMORROW.
RICHMOND, June 22.—Promptly at 8:30 o'clock Ye Colonial Dames will begin their concert program at the Richmond club. The concert is being given under the direction of the St. Mark's church. Dancing will conclude the program for the evening.

WEST SIDE PARTY.
RICHMOND, June 22.—Tonight in Frazer hall, 1015 West Side members of the Young Ladies Institute will give a whist party which will be concluded with dancing. Those in charge are the Mesdames McNair, and Casey and Mesdames McDuff, Wade, Pope, Cordoran and Woods.

DROVE PAST CAR; $10.
RICHMOND, June 22.—D. E. Hughes, limousine operator, was fined $10 for driving past a street car when the car was standing still.

It was standing near an empty cracker box and was of a brownish color.

Robertson also stated that he had seen Patrolman Moore keeping the crowd back in the vicinity of the automobile. He was in the car when it was driven past by the woman who accompanied him. She remembered the suitcase particularly, as she was looking for an owner who would give her permission to turn it on end and sit on it.

McDonald followed Mrs. Robertson and stated that he was standing on Steuart street, near Market. "I got there between 1:30 and 1:40," McDonald testified. "I saw Warren K. Billings come out of the building at 721 Market street, as though from Mission. When I first saw him he was about 25 or 30 feet back of the saloon. He carried a suitcase. He turned his head around frequently, and I was on a pivot. I saw him set the suitcase down and go to the corner door of the saloon. He pushed the door open a little bit and a man whom I afterward identified as Thomas Mooney—he came out of the saloon."

YEAR EXPLOSION.
Billings and Mooney then stood on the sidewalk. Mooney looked at his watch and then looked down Steuart street, close to the building. He looked at his watch again and then at the ferry clock and said something to Billings. Then Billings walked out one way and Mooney put his hands to his face, looked at his watch again and walked the other way. I stood on the corner a few minutes watching the parade and then started toward the ferry.

"The parade on Steuart street had not moved yet. Some of the Grand Army men were on the curb and others were talking in groups. I then walked down the street. I heard the explosion. At that time I was in front of the Alameda coffee house on Market street. After the explosion, five or ten minutes, I went back to the scene. The police had the place roped off and I couldn't see the spot where the explosion occurred. Later that night I went down and saw the place. It was where I saw Billings put the suitcase."

There were frequent objections on the part of counsel to various portions of McDonald's testimony and at its conclusion he was turned over to Attorney Nathan Coughlin for cross-examination. Coughlin developed that aside from one week's employment at the Union Iron Works, about a week at Richmond and less than a month at a Union Island ranch McDonald had not been employed since the parade. He had been wholly supported by the police, he said, but as far as coin was concerned, he had not even been given care.

CHAPLIN SIGNS MILLION CONTRACT

Following a conference with local exhibitors—members of the First National Exhibitors' Circuit—announcement was made today that Charlie Chaplin, motion picture comedian, had signed a contract with the corporation to produce and star in eight pictures during the coming year at a figure estimated to exceed $1,000,000. Chaplin was in the bay region until several days ago, but his presence here was carefully hidden. For one week negotiations were carried on, but it was not until today that signing of the contract became known. It is probable that Chaplin and his company will produce some of the pictures in the vicinity of Oakland, although officials of the Exhibitors' Circuit were unable to say where a local studio would be erected.

According to the contract, Chaplin will produce the pictures and enact the leading roles. His contract with the Mutual Film corporation is at an end and it is thought that he will begin work at once on preliminary details of production. The Turner & Dahnen circuit, local members of the national exhibitors' league, which capitalized recently for many millions of dollars, made the contract with the film star. Among those who signed the agreement were J. T. Turner, Fred Dahnen, E. B. Johnson and C. L. Langley. Chaplin pictures for the current year will be controlled by the national corporation.

PERSHING BUSY WITH GIGANTIC WAR PROJECTS

PARIS, June 22.—Like the head of a great corporation, General John J. Pershing, the American commander, is conducting his war plans on the lines of twentieth century efficiency. The busiest corner in Paris today may be said to be the United States army headquarters in the Rue de Constantine.

General Pershing is right in his element. Naturally a hard worker, he is now extending himself to get the greatest amount of labor accomplished within the shortest time. Everything pertaining to the preparations is being carried along upon a gigantic scale. It is evident from the work under way that the United States is going into the war with all her might. Preparations are being made for the care of huge armies. Miles of wooden huts are being constructed, surveys are being made for railroads and highways, mighty stores of food are being accumulated, sanitary precautions are being carried out upon an almost unprecedented scale and arrangements are under way for the accumulation of vast stores of ammunition.

ASSIS THOSPITALS

LOS ANGELES, June 22.—Setting an example which other churches in Los Angeles are expected to follow, the First Congregational church has completed arrangements to send two young men to France to serve the American Ambulance Corps as representatives of its congregation. He received a broken leg and severe burns from his contact with the high tension wires. He was picked up by fellow employees and taken to the emergency hospital at the mole and later removed to the Southern Pacific Hospital in San Francisco.

TO BUY BIBLES FOR SOLDIERS

Plans for the equipment of soldiers with New Testaments as items in their camp kits will be discussed at a meeting to be held on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. building in the interests of the enlisted men of the army and navy. The need for this provision for the spiritual comfort and happiness of the men in the face of death will be pointed out by Secretary Wilson of the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A., the Rev. A. Wesley Mell, representing the American Bible Society, and Mrs. M. Berry-Goodwin of Rockhurst Center in charge of the local work of the Pocket Testament League.

Local distribution of Testaments is being supervised by a committee composed of John J. Macdonald, J. H. McCallum, H. K. H. Mitchell, A. Wesley Mell and Mrs. M. Berry-Goodwin.

The Pocket Testament League in England has been doing a remarkable work among the troops leaving for the trenches. During the first two years of the war 250,000 membership cards signed by soldiers were filed in the London office. Membership consists merely of the pledge to carry a Testament always with one and to read a chapter daily. Testaments have been issued to every soldier member.

"LOYALTY TEST" FOR TEACHERS WILL BE URGED

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—A loyalty test for every teacher in the public schools of the city is to be imposed by the Board of Education, if the suggestion of President George E. Gallagher is carried out. Following the forced resignation of Miss Dora T. Israel, he has urged upon his colleagues the advisability of asking each teacher to sign a profession of loyalty.

"I feel very strongly on this subject," he said today. "I do not believe that people should draw pay from this city when they cannot teach pupils to salute the flag. We wish respect and honor for our flag instilled into the minds of all children, and if there are any teachers out of sympathy with this sentiment, the sooner they are out of the department the better."

Miss Israel, it has been ascertained, was in the habit of gathering about her after school hours in the Hamilton Evening Grammar School, pupils who were interested in Socialism and other international ideas and discussing these subjects. It was as a result of some of her utterances at these meetings that she was summoned before the Board of Education.

ARMY AND NAVY NIGHT AT CLUB

Army and Navy Night was celebrated by the Athenian-Nile Club last evening with an informal dinner tendered to eight guests of honor connected with the military organization of the United States. Patriotism was the note of the occasion, from the decorations on the tables to the musical program that preceded and followed the dinner speeches. There was an attendance of about one hundred and sixty members of the club. Brigadier-General Charles A. Woodruff, retired, was the toastmaster of the evening, calling upon the following speakers: Victor H. Metcalf, former secretary of the navy; Rear-Admiral C. A. Gove, Brigadier-General John P. Wisner, retired; Captain Wilson R. Burr, U. S. A.; Captain John McKinstry, Marine Corps, U. S. N.; Lieutenant R. W. Riefkohl, U. S. A.; J. B. Howell, former lieutenant in the submarine service, U. S. N. and M. G. White, inspector of airplanes and motors, U. S. Signal Service.

The musical program, consisting of instrumental and vocal numbers appropriate to the spirit of the evening, was directed by E. H. McCandlish. A part of the program was the singing of the "Marseillaise" by Felix M. Locher.

SOUNDS WARNING TO AMERICANS

Declaring that heavy indemnity, both financial and territorial, together with possible occupation of American holdings, may be exacted in the event of certain victory follows lack of proper support to the Allies in the present struggle, Den F. Woolner, former city attorney and an active factor in national humanitarian work, today urged the people of Oakland to aid in supplying the great national Red Cross bulwark which the national Government is throwing up against foreign encroachments. He said:

"Are the American people going to let the rest of a liberty loving world struggle and suffer for us and eventually be taken down, taking with them in their fall the only barrier that stands between the Germans and ourselves? These are no speculations, they are facts. Unless we in America wake up, unless our minds take fire with the inspiration for service, unless we open our pocket-books and our hearts, then mark my words there may be a German governor-general in Oakland."

"We have profited perforce from the sacrifices and sufferings of our brave allies. We have become the market place of the world. The war has sent great riches, great prosperity to our country. Nearly three years of this prosperity and security have been vouchsafed to the American people."

NEED IS IMMEDIATE.

"Now, at once, immediately, there is need for action in all of our resources of men and money and sympathy—and the last is scarcely less important than the first and second. What are we going to do? Is it in the American people."

"We want subscription from everybody, rich, well to do, poor. This war fund to which Oakland people are asked to contribute must be a national undertaking in the finest and most thorough sense of the word."

"The crisis in this war is at hand and the United States must play her part or prepare for a humiliating peace. These people never endured—not even devoted Belgium."

HURT IN MISHAP

J. H. Gerard of 2212 Ward street, Berkeley, is suffering from a laceration of the left leg and several cuts and bruises as the result of being struck by an automobile and thrown through a plate-glass window of a stationary store, 1435 Broadway, yesterday afternoon. Gerard was standing on the curb when he was struck by a machine driven by F. Yamaguchi of 2514 Shattuck avenue, Berkeley. He was treated at the Emergency Hospital.

WORKMAN IS HURT

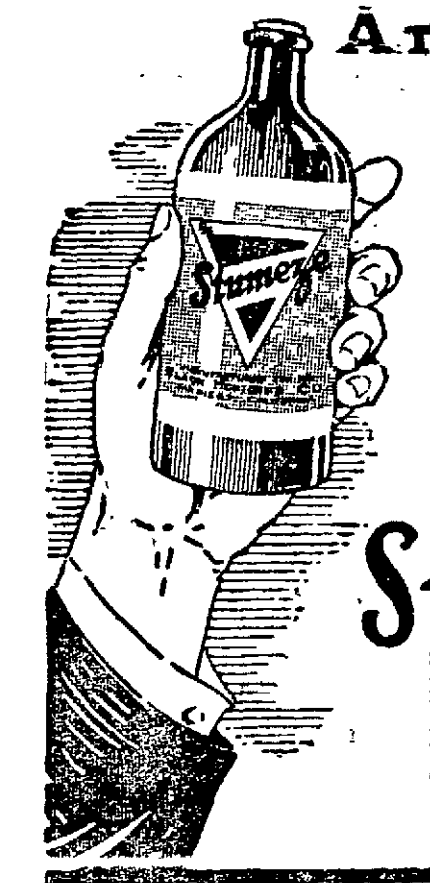

Ernest Isaacs, 35 years old, a ship carpenter, living in a rooming house above the Washington market, suffered a fractured skull when he fell from the side of a ship onto a float and then into the water at the Hamilton shipyard in East Oakland today. He fell headforemost onto the float when he lost his footing and from there pitched into the water. Fellow workers pulled him out and he was removed to the Emergency hospital. His condition is serious.

WOULD ENCOURAGE FARMER PEDDLERS

To encourage farmers to peddle their products in the streets of Oakland and so keep down the cost of vegetables and fruit, the Glenview Women's Club will ask the City Council to withdraw the license imposed on farmer peddlers during the war. Co-operation of other improvement clubs will be asked by the Glenview Club to bring about this measure.

A resolution of intention to ask the Council to rescind the license was adopted by the club following a talk yesterday afternoon before the members by Mrs. T. Francis Hunt of the University of California extension department, in which she explained how food could be conserved. It was pointed out by several of the club members that many farmers would not come to Oakland to peddle fruit and vegetables because they were asked "Where is your license?"

The Glenview Club was the first to take up the question of a municipal market with the City Council.

TRADE COMMISSION WILL FIX PRICES

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The federal trade commission will be asked soon by President Denham of the Emergency Fleet Corporation to fix a uniform price for steel and steel products for all industries throughout the country.

The commission will be asked to name a fair price which will afford the producers a fair profit not only on every other material entering into the manufacture of steel.

W. U. WILL CLOSE MT. EDEN OFFICE

When Mount Eden folk want to send a telegram in future they will have to go to the telegraph office in Hayward, a mile away, announcement being made today that the Railroad Commission has authorized the Western Union Telegraph Company to close its office at Mount Eden.

Hitherto the Mount Eden office has been in connection with the Southern Pacific Company, but the railroad proposes to change the station into a non-telegraph service. Upon the claim that it would not pay to maintain a telegraph station in such a small community, the Western Union Company asked and received the commission's permission to discontinue its office there.

GERMAN GOLD IN MEXICO AIDS CAUSE

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASD WIRE TO TRIBUNE

MEXICO CITY, June 22.—Every possible pressure, including financial offers, is reported to have been brought to bear by Germans and pro-Germans to stop the campaign of El Universal for the severance of relations between Mexico and Germany. The discussion of the campaign has brought a renewal of charges that pro-German papers are being directly aided in their campaign against the United States by free print paper supplied by firms in the United States. It is known that four hundred rolls of paper were shipped by the steamer Monterey from a New York firm to Vera Cruz in April. It is charged that La Opinion of Vera Cruz was offered part of this shipment, if it would take a pro-German stand. The paper refused and the shipment reached Mexico.

Other papers here have repeatedly charged that the $400 were given free to pro-German papers in the capital. Telegraphic news, written with the obvious purpose of misrepresenting the United States, comes from New York and apparently has no difficulty in passing the censor.

U-CHASER TESTED

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Preliminary reports from the New York navy yard on trials of the first of the 110 submarine chasers show satisfactory results in every respect. The hull was completed in a few weeks' time and the boat already has weathered her first test run without developing any defects. The new patrol boat is equipped with triple screws driven by three gasoline engines.

The majority of the thirty or more private firms building vessels of this type do not expect to deliver their first boats before October 1.

SEEK RUSSIAN ART

PETROGRAD, June 22.—Novoe Vremya prints a big advertisement from an unnamed American corporation which declares it has assigned $20,000,000 for the purchase in Russia of antiques, pictures, porcelain and tapestry. Vladimir Korotkiy has issued a furious protest describing the plan as "robbery of our national treasures." He demands a law similar to that in Italy forbidding the export of works of art.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 22.—A total production of 25,000,000 bushels of winter wheat in Kansas this year, 2,000,000 bushels more than the May estimate, was forecast in the report issued by the State Board of Agriculture today.

FLAG WILL GO. DESPITE RULES OR RED TAPE

WASHINGTON, June 22.—State Department regulations were smashed to smithereens today when an appeal from a great granddaughter of Betsy Ross, maker of the first American flag, that her small replica of the "first flag" be sent to an Iowa boy in the French trenches, brought an affirmative response.

Mrs. M. C. Robinson of Fort Madison, Iowa, transmitted through Senator Kenyon of Iowa a request to Secretary Lansing to send "her flag" to Philip Roan, a member of the American ambulance corps. Roan is Fort Madison's lone contribution to the war, other than several thousand dollars subscribed to Liberty Loan bonds. The Fort Madison lodge of Elks, of which he is a member, suggested that the descendant of Betsy Ross make a small flag for Roan to carry at the front.

The flag was made and dispatched to Senator Kenyon, whose request to Secretary Lansing was answered today when the State Department waived regulations and consented to send the flag to Roan in the next diplomatic pouch.

CANAL RULES TO GOVERN WARSHIPS

WASHINGTON, June 22.—To meet war conditions President Wilson has approved new regulations for the Panama canal, prescribing the length of time belligerent warships may remain in canal waters and the conditions under which they may coal and provision.

To insure a free and open waterway on terms of equality to merchant ships and warships it is ordered that there shall not be, except by special arrangement, at any one time, a greater number of war vessels of any one nation, other than the United States, including those of the allies or such nation, than three in either terminal port and its adjacent terminal waters or more than three in transit through the canal, nor shall the total number of such vessels at any one time exceed six in all the territorial waters of the canal zone. The regulations are in general similar to those governing the Suez canal.

Fight or Give

No sacrifice that we at home may make can equal that of the soldier who risks his life on the field of battle. He is willing to lay down his life for his country—for you and me. What are we willing to do for him?

Oakland's share of the $100,000,000 National Red Cross Fund to be used in ministering to American soldiers, their destitute dependents at home, and the suffering people in the war-ravaged sections of Europe is $200,000.

WILL WE MEET THIS SACRED OBLIGATION?—to protect with medical aid the boys we can't protect from lead and shrapnel?

Oakland cannot disgrace herself by being a slacker city. If all our men and women, both young and old, do their individual parts we will not fail. If we have a large number of slackers, people who wait for the other fellow to do it, we will fall behind and everlasting disgrace will be ours.

Fulfill your obligation to your country with honor to yourself. DO YOUR PART. Remember that He gives twice who gives quickly. He gives ten fold who gives voluntarily. It is impossible for someone to call on every individual. DON'T WAIT. Come forward at once in a spirit of true patriotism and mercy.

CHICAGO, June 22.—Five thousand Modern Woodmen of America, uniformed in many colors, made a brilliant spectacle in the annual review and parade here yesterday in connection with the order's convention at Rock Island, Ill., carried away the team honors in the senior division and also in the junior division. The awards by the executive council included: Camp 120, Omaha, Neb., $7.05 points, was second. In the junior division, Camp 222, Lincoln, Neb., $4.5 points, third; Camp 171, Council Bluffs, Ia., $7.05 points, tenth.

dispute over property. The men had been friends and neighbors for years. Hoyer gave himself up.

Society

Mrs. Raymond Perry will be a Sunday tea hostess, opening her beautiful estate in Claremont for an elaborate function which finds in the Red Cross Society and the week's campaigns for funds its inspiration. Mrs. Perry will be assisted by Mrs. A. S. Larkey, captain of one of the banner teams; Mrs. Glenn Barnhart and Mrs. Joseph R. Knowland in accumulating a treasury for the relief work, and by a large number of socially prominent women, who will see to it that the several hundred of guests have a good time. A notable program of music has been arranged and a chat over the tea-table will offer the diversion for the mid-summer afternoon under the oaks.

The function will be unique in that it is to be largely a family party. A special table set at a half a dollar will be levied on each guest, because the hostesses want everyone, mother and father and all the little ones, to share in the pleasure of contributing their part to the nation's great work.

And while this is one of the first of the all fresco Sunday receptions which is given in the cause of patriotism, it is but the forerunner of a long series, which will follow during the later season.

Mrs. William M. Fuller, the wife of Judge Fuller of the Court of Special Sessions in New York City, is being welcomed to Oakland, where she is being made much of by her friends and acquaintances. She is the daughter of a prominent California family and was a belle on both sides of the bay in the sixties and seventies. The old Eaton home was on Rincon Hill.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Keller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Keller, and John Francis Barry was solemnized this week at a quiet ceremony in St. Francis de Sales Church. Miss Adelaide Keller was her sister's only attendant, with James Barry assisting his brother as best man. Barry is an architectural engineer and is a graduate of the University of California.

Keller family is prominently known on this side of the bay. Their home is in Piedmont.

Mr. and Mrs. Barry sailed yesterday for Alaska, where the honeymoon will be spent. They are planning to make their home in Oakland upon their return.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wilson and their daughter, Miss Grace Wilson, arrived on Wednesday morning from an extended summer tour of the Atlantic coast. On Wednesday evening they were the particular guests of honor at an elaborate dinner party at the Nicholl residence in Fourth Avenue.

Miss Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Merritt of Livermore, Miss Lulu Grace Wells, E. B. Kane, Samuel G. Wilson of Sacramento.

The Wilson family party made New York their objective point, spending a fortnight there. They also visited in Washington, D. C., and felt the great excitement which is a feature of the nation's capital in these intense days and remained a brief while in Philadelphia. While in Cleveland, Ohio the Californians were at a house given by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wilson's brother for two weeks and were extensively entertained.

Mrs. C. A. Black will be a Monday hostess at a score or more of neighborhood friends who are devoting one day each week to the self-appointed task of making old-fashioned quilts for the Baby Hospital in October. The treasures which they have already stored away in lavender are exceedingly lovely, running the whole gamut of beauty and comfort in bed furnishings.

This week Mrs. Benjamin Smith entertained the same group at her Vernon street residence.

Miss Lorna Williamson will be a hostess of tomorrow evening, claiming a congenial coterie of the younger set at a house dance at the family home in Hillside avenue. Miss Williamson is receiving a cordial greeting upon her return from Bryn Mawr, where she has been during the past year, making an enviable record for herself as a student and leader. The informal affair this week is to bring together her more intimate friends. She will be assisted by her mother, Mrs. Willard Williamson.

and efficiently done. It seemed a pity that through the three months of the club's adjournment the social home should find its doors locked. So the rooms are to be used throughout the summer. The members who have given themselves most generously to the unique settlement plan have thrown themselves heart and soul into the patriotic work and a big circle has been formed. Each Friday at 1 o'clock the members will gather to make such things as the Red Cross most deeply needs. The weekly gatherings are under the direction of Mrs. J. L. Fuller.

With Miss Ruth Elder as her guest of honor, Miss Henrietta Balch will be a hostess tomorrow, asking a number of the younger set to share in the compliment of the afternoon. Miss Elder announced her betrothal to Dr. William Noble Lacey early in the season and is planning her wedding for the later summer.

Miramar is to claim Mrs. Irving Wright the greater part of the summer. Each year Mrs. Wright plans to join the summer set there for a few weeks, enjoying the delightful life which the attractive resort has to offer. Mrs. Granville Abbott, later in the year, will go down to Miramar for an outing of some length. The William G. Henshaw summer place, which is in the vicinity of Santa Barbara, has also been owned and some members of the large family connection will be there until late in November.

The arrival of Mr. and Mrs. William Mein in California will lend new impetus to the quiet serenity of the mid-summer, for both the interesting matron and her husband are favorites with society here as well as in San Francisco and down the peninsula. Although they have taken apartments at the Fairmont during the sojourn they will be much with Mein's mother, Mrs. Thomas Mein, in the Lakeside district. A little later they will go on to Tahoe to join the colony of pleasure seekers there. Mrs. Mein is a daughter of Gardner Williams of Washington, D. C.

Miss Dorothy Lowell is a hostess of the very entertaining informal bridge and ten of the family home in Tenth avenue. Among those who shared the pleasure of the hour were Mrs. Claude Paw, Miss Ruth Hart, Miss Lulu Grace Wells, Miss Ruth Fletcher, Miss Madeline Goodrich and several others.

The latest group of women to give their time and study to the work of first aid is being organized in connection with Oakland Center, California Civic League, although the meetings will not be held until the early September. Miss Lorena MacIntyre has been appointed as curator of the new class by the league's general chairman, Mrs. Charles Leonard Smith. Dr. Scofield Aldrich will be the instructor. The minimum number in the section is twenty-five, and according to the latest ruling they will not of necessity be center members.

The Curious Quest Mr. Ernest Bliss

E. Phillips Oppenheim

"Well, so long as I've offered you one, I am glad you can appreciate it," Mr. Dorington remarked. "Now, listen to me attentively. I've sized you up in my mind, and I am very seldom wrong. You're a young fellow who's just a bit too good for his job, but who hasn't had any luck. You weren't born a worker and I should think you would be glad enough to make a bit without over-much manual labor."

"I find driving a car very hard work at times," Bliss admitted.

Mr. Dorington leaned forward. He was a thin, young man of gentlemanly appearance, fairly good-looking, but with eyes set a trifle too close together.

"I can put you in the way," he confided. "Of coming into a little scheme of my own. There are risks in it, but if it comes to making a scrap, you'll be able to do without work for a year or two. If it fails, you may find yourself in difficulties."

Bliss looked at the end of his cigar thoughtfully.

"Do you mean," he asked, "that there is anything illegal about it?"

"There is," Mr. Dorington assented. "Then why on earth," Bliss inquired, "if you will excuse my asking the question, do you risk giving yourself away like this to a complete stranger?"

"Simple question," Mr. Dorington observed approvingly. "The reason is simple. I'm because, as far as I can see you are the one person in the world who can carry this scheme of mine through to a successful termination."

Bliss arched.

"You'll have to explain," he suggested.

Mr. Dorington moved toward the bathroom door and closed it. Then he came back to his place.

"I am hard up," he said. "I won't bother you with my history. I am a gentleman in both the well educated and all that, but up against it. I can't work. The consequence is, I make what I can by my wits. Now I've tumbled into a soft thing. You see these rooms? You know what sort of a cigar you're smoking?"

"I do," Bliss assented drily.

"Don't know whether you understand anything about these things," Mr. Dorington proceeded, "but those prints upon these are the rooms of a very wealthy man. Needless to tell you, they aren't my rooms. They belong to a young fellow about town who has had to disappear for a time. He had to disappear so suddenly that he had no time to make any arrangements or do more than leave his valet in possession."

"Disappear?" Bliss repeated. "What had he done, then?"

Mr. Dorington shook his head slowly. "Nobody knows exactly. There was a mystery about the whole affair which, I suppose, will be cleared up some day. The valet was honest for a couple of months, but the thing got too much for him. He has let me the rooms for a paltry five pounds a week."

"Dear me," Bliss murmured, looking around. "They certainly seem worth more than that."

"Not only have I got the rooms," Mr. Dorington continued, "but I am smoking this fellow's—Bliss's name is—smoking his cigars and drinking his wine at half-price all the time."

WOULD FIGHT BOLL WORM. WASHINGTON, June 22.—An emergency appropriation of $500,000 to prevent the introduction of the pink boll worm into the United States from Mexico by creating a cotton free zone fifty to one hundred miles wide in Texas, next to the Rio Grande, was asked of Congress today by Secretary Houston of the agriculture department.

OAKLAND IN FIRST PLACE FOR BATTERY

Oakland is in a race, under handicap, with San Diego and San Francisco for the privilege of first organizing one battery of field artillery and a headquarters company and band of twenty-seven pieces to be mustered into the National Guard and thence into the federal service. San Francisco and San Diego have both been given permission to organize each one battery. To Oakland has fallen the lion's share. One hundred and ninety-five men and officers are needed for the battery and ninety men for the headquarters company and band—a total of 285. These units must be recruited within the next two weeks and by August 5 it is expected that they will be mustered into the federal service.

Men of good physical condition between the ages of 21 and 35 years only will be accepted. Men eligible for the draft have in this organization the last opportunity to volunteer their services. Enlistment in the new battery will automatically exempt men from draft, at least they will evade draft by volunteering.

Men drafted will be placed in whatever company or branch of the service the exigency of the service demands. The new battery for the National Guard is a distinctly Oakland organization and gives men a choice of serving in what is thought by many to be the most desirable branch of the military service. Friends have an opportunity of serving together. In every sense of the phrase they will be "in the hands of friends." Men they know and in whom they will have confidence will be their officers and comrades. When they return to civil life they will have the peculiar happiness of living in the same city as men with whom they have served under the flag in foreign lands.

Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen will command the battery. Besides the commander there will be four other commissioned officers and a number of non-commissioned officers. The commissioned officers will be chosen by a competitive examination. Three men for each commissioned place will take the examination. Those who are not appointed as commissioned officers will have the first opportunity of being appointed non-commissioned officers.

Recruiting offices have been opened in the city hall from 9 to 5 o'clock. Applications for enlistment in the new organization may be made at the office of the chief of police and in the evening from 7:30 to 10 o'clock at room 223 in the city hall.

SWEDISH DAY WILL BE HELD

Swedish National Day will be celebrated in Shell Mound Park tomorrow under the auspices of the Swedish-American Patriotic League of California.

Miss Ruth Ramberg has been chosen the midsummer queen for the occasion, which annually brings Swedish citizens from all parts of the state. Miss Alfhild Ahlman will represent Columbia and Miss Helen Blom of Alameda will portray Sweden.

The Swedish Singing Society of San Francisco and the Svea Male Chorus of Oakland will give musical numbers and there will be a Colonial flag drill, Swedish and American dances and a tableau by boys and girls in costume under the direction of Miss Alice Anderson.

Harry Mentzer has been chosen marshal of the day and Emil Hogberg and John Gustafson his assistants. The decorations will be elaborate and there will be many unusual features, including the raising of a giant May pole in the center of the arena at 2 o'clock.

The Swedish-American Patriotic League has decided to give part of the proceeds to the Red Cross fund.

CHINESE HELD; LOTTERY CHARGED

One Chinese woman and three Chinese men are under arrest as the result of a raid by the police on an establishment at 1734 Seventh street, alleged by the police to be a lottery headquarters. The raid was directed by Police Corporal W. W. Brock. Those arrested are charged with violating anti-gambling laws.

Ah Dick and Goe Chung were found with lottery paraphernalia in their possession, according to the police, while Ah Goe and Mrs. Ah Dick were arrested as visitors in the place. The four were released on cash bail.

This is the first arrest of Chinese accused of violating the anti-gambling laws for some time. The police received information that the place was operating and after an investigation laid plans for capturing the supposed proprietors.

HALT WIRELESS

Laddie J. Miller, 14, of 154 Lake street, who makes wireless operating a hobby, started to take down the wireless apparatus at his home to conform with war department orders but was not quick enough to satisfy the authorities. Lieutenant H. D. Hayes, T. S. N. called at Miller's home yesterday and instructed that the wireless be immediately removed.

"I do not have a good enough knowledge of wireless to receive messages properly and I had the aerial half taken down so that it could not be operated," said the lad, in explaining his innocence of wrong intent.

BIG FORGING PLANT COMES TO OAKLAND

Located on a tract of 40,000 square feet, bounded by Valdez, Derby and Glascock streets, a new $100,000 factory is being constructed in East Oakland as the latest manufacturing to be attracted to this city by the ship-building activity which is making the inner harbor a hive of industry. The Edwin Forrest Forge Company is the name of the new concern, as announced today by the new industrial committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce.

The building now in construction is the first unit of a series of shops which will eventually cover the entire area. By August 15 the company will be ready to begin work at their specialty, which is heavy forging.

The plant will specialize in cam, crank and stakeboat shafting, shipsmithing, machine forging, well-boring, drilling and fishing tools, hammered steel shoes and dies and forged mill balls.

TO MAKE HARDWARE.

"We will be prepared to make anything from a bolt to an anchor," Edwin Forrest, head of the new company, said this morning.

The company already has an order for 40,000 steel axes, which will be turned out at the Oakland plant.

Forrest says that his company will have no fear of being unable to obtain steel, as he has just signed a contract for the delivery of 200 tons monthly.

The award of sixteen steamships to the Moore Shipbuilding Company by the government was one of the factors in bringing the new factory to Oakland, as the Forrest people figure on manufacturing many of the engine parts for these vessels. They also expect to do a large business with the various gas engine works along the upper inner harbor, many of which already are Forrest's customers.

It makes many of the parts for the Diesel engine and also for the turbine.

Forrest's present plant, at Fremont and Mission streets, San Francisco, will be continued in operation, but it will be used mostly for repair work, the main manufacturing business being conducted at the Oakland plant.

OTHER PLANTS COMING.

"We expect other plants to follow us over to Oakland," Forrest said, in discussing his move. "These will be concerns in allied industries which necessarily must be near us to obtain the material required for their business."

The Edwin Forrest Forge Company is a new concern, having just been organized as a result of the growth of the business of the San Francisco plant.

Forrest started in the steel business as a young man. For many years he was general foreman and heavy forger for the old Pacific Rolling Mill and the Redden Iron and Locomotive Works.

He started in business for himself in 1901, manufacturing well drills and equipment. He went into the manufacture of parts for marine gas engines and ship materials five years ago.

SHOW FRIENDSHIP

SAN DIEGO, June 22.—Two motion picture operators, sent here by order of President Carranza of Mexico to film scenes at the Friendship fiesta, to begin here today and end Sunday, have arrived. They said that all pictures, showing friendly relations of Mexicans and Americans along the border, would be shown in theaters throughout the Mexican republic.

The Mexican gunboat Guerrero, carrying a number of young Mexican naval students in addition to her regular crew, arrived in the harbor today to remain during the fiesta.

FEAR GRAIN FIRE

SACRAMENTO, June 22.—Prevalence of disastrous grain fires in many parts of the state have caused state council of defense to urge that all tractors and harvesting machines be immediately equipped with fire extinguishers. The suggestion is made by Dean Hunt of the University of California college of agriculture, who urges that county boards of supervisors pass ordinances requiring that farm machinery carry some efficient type of fire extinguisher while at work in the field.

PSYCHIC WAVES REGISTERED ON BRAIN OF DOG?

Is the brain of an intelligent dog so sensitive as to register telepathic psychic waves? Could the disturbance caused in the immaterial fourth dimension by a tragedy make an impression upon a canine consciousness distant 4000 miles? Or was it simple coincidence?

These are questions being asked by friends of the late Jack London as the news spreads about that the dead author's dog, Possum, was found dead in a shallow stream on the London ranch in the Valley of the Moon on the day that the ship Dirigo went down in the Atlantic—the victim of a submarine.

The dog was adopted by London in Philadelphia when he was starting from that port years ago on a voyage around the Horn on the full-rigged American ship Dirigo. The dog became the pet of the crew, who regarded him as a mascot. When the vessel arrived in San Francisco Possum went to the ranch with his master.

On May 31 the Dirigo was sunk by a submarine as she was en route from New York to Havre. Hours before the news of the disaster reached California, by telegraph one of the men on the ranch came upon the body of Possum lying half-submerged in the water of a small creek.

Was it a coincidence? Or did Possum, already grieving over the death of his master, realize the disaster and voluntarily give up his life at his second shock?

AFRICA, WAR TOPIC

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—The members of the Commonwealth Club at their luncheon tomorrow at the Palace hotel are to be addressed by Dr. Silas F. Johnson on "Over Africa in War and Otherwise."

Dr. Johnson has just returned from a stay of 22 years in the West African colonies, and has been in the thick of the fighting in the eighteen months' battle that settled the fate of the West African colonies. His address will therefore give a picture of part of the world war which has not yet been described in San Francisco. The luncheon will start promptly at 12:30 o'clock.

FIRE IS PROBED

SEATTLE, Wash., June 22.—Investigation by both police and fire marshals is under way here today following a $75,000 blaze which completely destroyed the Graham Showcase Company and the Metropolitan Laundry Company plant, besides doing damage to the warehouse of the Puget Sound Air Glass Company here last night.

DECLINE IN BONDS

NEW YORK, June 22.—During the first bond call on the Stock Exchange today further sharp declines were recorded in the bid prices of old United States Government issues.

The registered and coupon 3's of 1946 were $5 bid, a drop of 2 points; Panama 3's of 1951 were $2 bid, off 3 points, and the registered and coupon 4's of 1925 were 104 bid, a decline of a point. These quotations represent the lowest levels in years. No actual transactions were made at the prices given.

The previous issues of the United States Government have shown heavy tendencies ever since the inception of the Liberty Loan. In banking circles it is believed the depreciation is mainly due to sales of the old bonds against purchases of the Liberty issue.

FOUR ARE SLAIN BY FARM HAND

POTSDAM, N. Y., June 22.—Henry Driggs, a farm hand, shot and killed three men and one woman early today, and then wound up his short career of crime by assaulting the niece of two of his victims and forcing her to accompany him to Potsdam. Here he gave himself up.

The quadruple killing occurred at the home of Henry Ladue, where Driggs had been employed for about a year. His victims were: Henry Ladue, 45; his brother, James, 48; their sister, Mrs. Josephine Rogers, 41, all of Stockholm, and Dr. Theron Jenkins of Brashear.

Driggs had been complaining for several days that he was not well, and Dr. Jenkins was called to attend him. He continued his usual work last night. Mrs. Rogers asked 18-year-old Harriet Ladue to go to a neighbor's for medicine. Mrs. Rogers apparently was killed during the girl's absence.

James Ladue entered the house from the barn a few minutes after Harriet returned. Driggs shot him and then seized the girl, gagged and bound her and carried her upstairs. He left her immediately. She heard Henry Ladue beg Driggs to spare his life, then several shots. There was a knock at the door and then Dr. Jenkins entered. Driggs immediately shot him down. Then he forced the girl to come to Potsdam with him.

U. S. CREWS TAKE TO DIVER HUNTING

BASE OF THE AMERICAN FLOTTILLA IN BRITISH WATERS, June 22. (By The Associated Press).—The old American doctrine of keeping everlastingly at it perhaps has never been better illustrated than here, the port from which the American tars are working day and night against the German submarine menace. This was the impression obtained by the correspondent who today made an inspection of torpedo boat destroyers that happened to be in the sheltered waters.

A majority of the American boats were out sweeping the seas for the elusive periscopes, picking up crews of ships that have been torpedoed or carrying merchantmen safely through the U-boat infested areas. Those in port had just returned for a brief respite.

One destroyer inspected had the good fortune to be able to bring back crews of the torpedied merchantmen. She had

Miss Miller, who is said to be the first woman in the United States to be accorded the privilege of examination, expects to win a post as operator on one of Uncle Sam's warships, and go to sea to do her bit in the war.

FOR BOARDING PARTIES.
Ten feet behind the guns were cases of shells, each shell weighing sixty pounds. When firing upon a submarine, the shells are passed by hand to the gunners—no small task when the sea is rolling. The man at the gun is cautioned

“They are for unwelcome boarding parties,” said the commander, “and crews are assigned to them.”

Then there were numerous torpedo tubes, which are always loaded. It is not violating the rules of censorship to say that this craft is of the 1000 ton class and carries a crew of 95, who are like a great happy family. The officer said there was surprisingly little homesickness among the youngsters. There is no mistaking the good relations which exist between officers and men.

The men are always eager to greet visitors and the correspondent gave them the first news of the success of their military registration in America and their over-subscription of the Liberty Loan. The personal touches of the cordial greetings extended to Major-General Pershing and his pioneer force on their way through England were also appre-

In these days of censorship it was rather a surprise to learn that the men receive their mail uncensored from the folks back home. It arrives about every ten days. It is not the same with their mail to America, which is censored, not only by their own censor aboard each ship, but also by the British censor ashore. But so far as could be learned, there was no complaint and this system is working exceedingly satisfactorily.

When submarine crews are rescued the sailors willingly give up their "comfy bunks."

BUILT CLUBHOUSE. The food also is plentiful and of good quality, most of it coming from the United States.

Two American pool tables, the first ever seen in this picturesque old village, arrived today. They are the latest addition to the clubhouse which is being built with funds provided by American businessmen, for the crews of the American destroyers.

Although the dormitory which will provide sleeping accommodations for seventy-five men will not be completed for a month, the clubhouse will be formally opened on Saturday night. The program has been printed by the destroyer's printer, and includes songs, dances, recitations and wrestling matches by "the most marvelous aggregation from God's country that ever set foot in anybody else's country."

STREET SPEAKERS WILL BE JAILED

SEATTLE, June 22.—Speakers on the streets of Seattle who voice opposition to the present war or to "methods of the government in connection therewith," will be arrested. Mayor Gill so ordered Chief of Police Beckingham.

Mayor Gill declared in his order that street meetings must not be allowed where they "will be obviously opposed to some overwhelming public sentiment and thus tend to provoke riots, affrays or other trouble."

Words of a street speaker to which soldiers and sailors took exception last Saturday led to a riot at the Industrial Workers of the World hall, in which a soldier was shot in the leg.

HELENA, Mont., June 22.—John Korpis of Butte was indicted by the federal grand jury here today on charges of conspiracy to obstruct the payment of the United States and of intimidating and enticing persons not to register under the federal draft law in Butte June 5.

The indictments charge that Korpis called a meeting and announced a parade in opposition to registration, and that he carried a banner reading, "Down With War."

Your Boy May Need the Aid.

Thanks to a new discovery made from a Japanese product, your foot troubles can be quickly ended.

Ice-Mint, as this new preparation is called, is said to thrive up on the corns, sore corns or corns between the toes so that they can be lifted out easily with the fingers.

Rub a little on any tender corn or callous. Instantly the soreness is relieved and shortly the corn or callous will be seen to be lifted right out with the fingers—no lift at all. No foolishness.

Ice-Mint is a clean, creamy snow-white, non-pungent substance and does not inflame or even irritate the most tender skin. There is no pain, smarting, or even a bit of soreness while applying Ice-Mint or afterwards. You will grow magically that you will never want to run the risk of blood poisoning by cutting a corn again.

Ask your druggist for a small jar of Ice-Mint which will cost a little yet is sufficient to rid you of all corns or callous.

You'll like it immensely.—Advertisement.

OAKLAND MUST WAKE UP.

While nearly 20,000 men of Oakland between the ages of 21 and 30 got on a national roll of honor by registering for military service which involves imminent and constant risk of life, only a few score of the older residents have exhibited a willingness to get on the Red Cross roll of honor by a financial contribution permitting continued safe enjoyment of the comforts of their own homes.

This is a situation which does not speak well for the patriotism of the people nor afford food for pleasant contemplation of the future reputation of their city.

The government has asked the people of Oakland to accept a certain part of the obligation of providing funds for relieving suffering and saving life among wounded American soldiers on the battlefields. And so far Oakland has not given substantial evidence of having heard the invitation. Eureka and San Jose and a hundred other villages and cities in the State have done better than this city.

Is the city of Oakland going to prove a slacker in humanitarian work, national patriotism and civic pride when the only test imposed is a financial one?

If you, citizens of Oakland, are to make good on your duty to the men of the army and navy who are to fight your battles, you must wake up and give.

You have got to do it now!

Your days of grace are few; they are today, tomorrow, Sunday and Monday.

Of course you can avoid your duty in this matter; you can be indifferent and miserly and studiously neglectful, because you are merely invited to exercise the high privilege of contributing to a work of mercy in behalf of the nation's defenders.

No government agent is coming around to take money away from you.

But within the next few weeks this city will be faced with a duty it cannot evade. The selective draft will draw a fair and just quota for the new war armies from this city. And it will hit indiscriminately. If it does not summon a member of your family it will call someone from a neighbor's or a relative's family. These men in uniform will go to the battlefield; make no mistake about that. They will face all the devilish and cruel instruments of warfare. Every unit that goes to the front is morally certain to suffer casualties—some of its men will be wounded and maimed, will come staggering back with shattered nerves and temporarily broken faculties.

You know that the government does not provide hospital and other relief facilities. You know that the Red Cross, recognized by the government, is charged with the burden of administering mercy; of saving lives and mending bodies and minds.

The Red Cross is supported by private contributions.

It needs now $100,000,000 to enable it to perform its work efficiently and as every good citizen wants it performed. It must be established in France by the time our troops are ready for the front, else it will fail in its merciful purpose.

Are you willing to be charged with any share of the responsibility for failure?

If you are not you must give. There is no other alternative. The amount asked of Oakland is only $200,000, less than $1 per capita—an insignificant sum compared with the resources and the ability of the city. Yet look at the list of contributions on another page of this paper and see how pitifully short we are.

It will be shameful if Oakland relies upon other cities to carry its patriotic and moral and humanitarian burdens. It will be a lasting disgrace if it permits the men in uniform from its own homes to suffer from lack of care in the battle zone because of failure to accept the present opportunity to help.

PORT COMMISSIONERS QUIT.

Within the present week three members of the port commission of Oakland, Messrs. Harrison S. Robinson, A. S. Lavenson and John L. Howard, have tendered their resignations to the mayor. They constitute a majority of this board.

There must be some sound reason, or reasons, for the resignation of these gentlemen, who stand high in the community and who have given bountifully of their time and ability in efforts to advance the city's interests. They were acting as members of an advisory body without pay and their findings and recommendations in waterfront matters were highly valued by the residents of the city. Consequently their withdrawal from office will be generally regretted.

While no reasons have been given by the former members of the port commission, a reasonable conclusion as to the main cause of the resignations may readily be drawn. It probably is to be found in the fact that the members could get no results for their work. Whenever they have tried to get new industries to locate on the waterfront they have been met with a positive lack of sympathy if not actual antagonism. They nearly always found obstacles in their way, objections usually in the form of legal bugbears. Alleged technicalities have been raised up against new industries, instead of being applied in the interest of the city. They found themselves up against an apparent policy to keep new industry out of Oakland and were constantly met with arguments against welcoming a new enterprise, instead of finding what they had every reason to expect—a spirit of hearty cooperation with their efforts to promote the industrial and commercial development of the city.

But while a knowledge of what the former members of the port commission had to contend with helps to explain their resignations, it does not increase the confidence of the people that the city's best interests are being served by their retirement. Mayor Davis is now urging a paid commission, but so long as the spirit and policy of opposition prevails, salaried men cannot do anything the volunteer and unpaid workers failed to do.

THE FARM LABOR PROBLEM.

The widely divergent statements on the question of agricultural labor which have been uttered in the various interested circles are proof that a deal of confusion exists in regard to this important matter. It is vital that there be reconciliation of the different statements, so that the exact condition of the prospective labor supply for harvest time may be known.

A few days ago the State council of defense stated that an army of 25,000 high school boys would be organized to work on the farms. Dean Thomas F. Hunt of the college of agriculture of the State university has included statements in a bulletin on the labor situation which, while making no definite assertion, tends to build up confidence in the efficiency of student labor. Contrary to these implied assurances, other professors of the agricultural college have declared that the high school student has not lived up to expectations, that the students are failures as farm laborers. Many of the farmers, particularly the operators of large farms, are exceedingly pessimistic regarding the capacity of student workers to give appreciable help; several farmers appear to think that nothing will do but the importation of Asiatic laborers.

Obviously the above represent extreme views. It is idle for the State council of defense and the head of the college of agriculture to speak of the number of high school students as being equivalent to just so many experienced farm laborers, or as representing an equivalent of man power for farming purposes. And just so far as the officials have failed to qualify their easy statements as to numbers they have been guilty of action calculated to deceive the farm owners. Authenticated cases of students having completely failed as farm help have been reported. Some of the farmers claim that they are not more than 5 per cent efficient.

Whatever the truth may be it is not necessary to doubt the willingness of the student to do his bit. But in the majority of cases he does not know his capacity. Going from city employment or from idleness to work on a farm in the summer time is a severely painful test. For the first week or so, until the body gets accustomed to the work, it is often a form of physical hardship that tries the sternest will. A large portion of the students, the element of necessity being absent, are simply not equal to the ordeal. They will be "failures," and will return home.

It is possible that the council of defense and Dean Hunt have been misunderstood on this matter. A conference will be held at Berkeley tomorrow for the discussion of the farm labor question and it is possible some practical farmers may be present to dispute with the paper theorists. If so, perhaps a middle ground may be selected on which extravagant promises will give way to reasonable hopes.

HINDENBURG'S ANSWER.

(New York Times.)

Of course, Hindenburg's answer to the British victory at Messines Ridge might have been foreseen. He sent fifteen airplanes over the tenement district of London to kill and wound more than five hundred non-combatants. One of them bombarded a schoolhouse and struck down sixty children. Hindenburg had announced to the Kaiser that "the great British and French spring offensive has come to a certain conclusion," and five days later the British captured Messines Ridge. It was urgently necessary to win a great counter-victory to restore the credit of Hindenburg's word and of the German arms, so the great battle of the tenement district schoolhouse was ordered and fought.

The Kaiser was misled by Hindenburg into premature rejoicing over the British defeat. The words he used were inapplicable to the situation on the western front, made inapplicable by Messines Ridge. Now, however, Hindenburg has supplied the Kaiser with a situation to which they are applicable.

ALEXANDER, KING OF GREECE.

(Philadelphia Evening Telegraph.)

No enthusiasm is felt in London over the elevation of Alexander to take the place of his father, Constantine, as king of Greece. Decidedly we feel the same way about it in America. Constantine's going evoked nothing but applause; his departure was long overdue. But why Alexander? Why any king of Greece at all?

This young Alexander takes a good photograph. People look at his picture and decide at once that he would look good in tennis flannels. They would even like to know him personally and sit down with him for a talk about things. But just because they want to see him get along and be popular with the folks, they would like to see him get a different job.

Some people in London are urging a general election in Greece at which the communists will have a chance to "make a clean sweep of the dynasty." If they care to. That would be fine, and a bright democratic feather in the entire cap, no matter what the vote showed. And we think Alexander would approve. He wasn't really raised to be a king. This way out should not be shut in his face.

NOTES and COMMENT

Now that cabbage actually has been substituted for tobacco in Germany there is one well-worn joke due for the discard.

A hot wave in Germany is reported, with indications that there is a warmer time coming.

Evidently the high cost of food-stuffs has not struck Bull Creek, where all-day feasts seem to be in order. Says a Bull Creek correspondent in the Humboldt Times: "Miss Casanova and the school children went on a picnic Thursday and spent the day in the redwoods enjoying a delicious picnic dinner."

Frank confession in the Visalia Delta: "It's too hot to write editorials. It is much easier to clip somebody else's."

"It is true our schools are antiquated, let's educate our sons to be gentlemen of the old school."

From all over the state families are coming to Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda to spend the summer months. Those who live here do not realize the importance we are taking on as a summer resort.

An illustration of the fact that serious things may be casually discovered is cited at Lemoore Springs, where, says the correspondent at that place to the Fresno Republican, "The fire was discovered by a customer who felt something hot on her clothes and on looking up saw the roof was red hot."

Someone has shocked the modesty of the editor of the Stockton Mail, who takes his pen in hand and, in the face of a startled feminine constituency, writes: "Since clothing, especially that of women, has ceased to serve the purposes of modesty, the only excuse for wearing it is the fashion."

The duties of a national censor, we are led to believe, is to get so much into the papers concerning himself that it will necessitate the throwing out of something that might be objectionable.

There is more joy in digging up potatoes if you have also dug up for the Red Cross.

Remember that in times of peace only pay days are the only Red Cross days on the calendar.

At Newport there is a society woman who has a red, white and blue flag in jewels on her bonnet. It will be a good wind that blows that hat into the Red Cross fund.

The spring tornado is becoming a serious question, says an exchange. Regular twister, isn't it?

Cause for joy as expressed in the Redding Searchlight: "It made Redding heat sufferers feel pretty good to know that six had perished from the same cause in San Bernardino county."

Reports from the front indicate that the Russians are retaking vodka.

NATURE RESENTS A BOAST.

On Thursday the British army hit the fuses attached to 1,000,000 pounds of high explosives. An "earthquake" ensued. The ground opened, German lines disappeared, great "thunder" clouds of smoke arose in solid form to immense heights. "It was worse than an earthquake," said one who had experienced a great seismic disturbance.

Another Nature must have heard the boast. Man had likened his greatest mining offensive in war to one of her irritable moods. She simply shrugged a shoulder. A city of 60,000 inhabitants disappeared. The surrounding country, luxuriant with flora and fauna, became a waste place.

PRETTY GIRL SEES FATHER FIGHT DUEL

TRIBUNE BUREAU
1434 PARK ST.

ALAMEDA, June 22.—Following a dramatic fight with knives under the frightened gaze of a pretty 16-year-old girl, Tony Cheremelli, a cannery worker of 2316 Lincoln avenue, is at the county hospital today, suffering from a deep wound in his side, while Joseph Riggiero, a laborer and father of the young woman, is in the city prison here awaiting the outcome of his opponent's injury.

According to the unusual story told the police by the frightened participants Flora Riggiero, the girl, left home several days ago and went to work for a family in this city as a domestic. Enraged that she should leave him, the father accused young Cheremelli of causing her to desert him.

The girl told the police that her father had threatened her with a knife last night, chased her about the house and "out into the street. She ran to Cheremelli for protection and the 25-year-old cannery worker, the first person to meet Riggiero's eyes as the father ran madly up the stairs.

On the threshold of Cheremelli's room and with the girl watching the progress of the battle, the two men circled cautiously, wielding their knives and watching the main chance for a fatal thrust.

Riggiero managed to reach under the guard of Cheremelli's arm and wound resulted. The girl screamed. Neighbors called the police and the assailant was arrested.

County hospital officials report the wounded man's condition improving. Respond cheerfully for the Red Cross.

Woman Kills Herself to Prevent Arrest For Theft

While Husband and Officers Are in the Cellar Discovering Stolen Goods Wife Fires Shot

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Confessing his own crimes but shielding the married woman who became his accomplice through love, George Woolf, portier of the fashionable Hotel Del Monte, Monterey, had not even told today that the woman lay dead in the San Francisco morgue. She was Mrs. Walter G. Ross, wife of the construction superintendent of a mining company, and sent a bullet through her heart when detectives searching her home, found loot from the hotel hidden in the basement.

Today the police and heart-broken husband are endeavoring to solve the mystery of how Woolf lured Mrs. Ross, respected middle-aged wife and mother of two children, to forsake everything to aid the hotel porter in his criminal career. Her guilt was discovered when Woolf mailed three packages of stolen silverware to her care general delivery. In a note Woolf tried to smuggle from his cell in the Monterey jail, he tried to hide her connection with his robberies by telling her to deliver a message that he would for herself to a mythical wife.

FIND STOLEN SILVER.
The police were looking for the imaginary Mrs. Woolf when they found the stolen silver.

It was when she became desperate with the knowledge that in a few minutes her guilt as the confederate of a thief would become known to her husband, who was at that moment in the cellar of their home at 1688 Ellis street, with two police officers, discovering $400 of stolen silverware that Mrs. Ross killed herself. Concealed in her bodice was found a telegram:

"Tell wife, don't write. Don't go near the postoffice."

"DEL MONTE."
This telegram, the police have no doubt, was from George W. Woolf, who is in the county jail at Salinas, charged with the theft of $700 worth of property from the Hotel Del Monte, where he was employed as a night porter. Just what connection existed between Mrs. Ross and Woolf will not be known unless the latter confesses.

WIRES TO MRS. ROSS.
Woolf was arrested by Deputy Sheriff John E. Currie of Monterey Wednesday afternoon just after he had mailed at the parcel post window three packages of stolen silverware addressed to Mrs. George W. Woolf, general delivery, San Francisco. Woolf was placed temporarily in the local calaboose and Currie kept watch near by. At midnight the prisoner hailed a passing boy and slipped him a message through the barred window. Currie intercepted the message later and found that Woolf had written a telegram on the lid of a cigarette box and given the boy money to send it to Mrs. Ross. It read:

"Tell wife to ship everything back by Wells Fargo as fast as she can. Box things up and send to hotel addressed to Carl Stanley, manager Hotel Del Monte. Do this quick to save me. Don't put your name or address on anything."
DEL MONTE.

WIFE IS CONFINED.
Yesterday morning Walter G. Ross, who is superintendent of construction for a Plumas county mining company, returned home for a visit with his wife and two children, Robert, aged 16, and Alice, aged 12. Last evening Currie and Detective Thomas F. Burke rang the door bell and Mrs. Ross answered.

"Are you Mrs. Woolf?" asked Currie.

"No," was the quick reply. "Mrs. Woolf used to live here, but she has moved away."

At that moment Ross came to the door and put his arm on his wife's shoulder.

"Who is Mrs. Woolf, dear?" he asked. "I don't remember having heard you mention her."

Mrs. Ross then stammered that she was a friend who came quite often, and in reply to another question from the officer, she declared that Mrs. Woolf had left some of her things in the basement.

Ross went with the officers into the basement. A few moments later, just after Currie and Burke had opened a trunk containing a quantity of the stolen silver, Alice Ross came running down the stairs, screaming that her mother had shot herself.

P. O. RECORDS LOST

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Records and money orders locked in the safe of the Healdsburg postoffice and which were believed to have been saved in the recent fire which destroyed the building in which the office was located, crumpled into ashes when the safe was opened, according to information received today by Chief Postal Inspector Samuel Morse. Morse said a year's work would be required to put the affairs of the postoffice into shape.

U. C. EXPERTS TO AID PLAN FOR HOSPITAL

The University of California is taking an interest in the plans that are being worked out by local and state authorities for the government of the new hospitals that are under construction and about to be begun by the Alameda county authorities. The university authorities have always been anxious to take an interest in such matters where their expert advice can be of use, and they have indicated a willingness to assist the Alameda county supervisors and the State Board of Charities and Corrections by placing at the disposal of the local authorities the use of all of their data and the services of their various departments of hospital research and management.

The university authorities have offered the services of Dr. R. T. Legge, the head of the Dispensary Department of the College of Medicine. But the work that the university will be able to do will be through Dr. Legge, who has had large experience in the organization of hospital management. The university management has not tried to interfere with local conditions but they are willing to be interested in the work that Alameda county is doing with the new tuberculosis hospital and they are anxious to aid, in every way, the establishment of a system that will meet the new requirements.

The offer of this aid has been welcomed, not only by the State Board of Charities and Corrections, but also by the Alameda county supervisors, and a series of conferences are being arranged for the discussion of conditions that will have to be met.

SURVEY UNDER WAY.

The work that is now being done by the Alameda supervisors, the State Board of Charities and Corrections and the university authorities has been based on one of more changes or reforms at the County Infirmary. It has become a thorough survey of every branch of hospital, clarity and humanitarian work that is conducted by the supervisors, in an effort to make of the hospital work for saving of public money and greater efficiency in service.

The supervisors have given the State Board an absolutely free hand in their investigation, and have been in consultation with the officials of the hospital and their employees. Not only have there been two employees of the state board living at the county infirmary for several weeks in order to study the detailed conditions at that place, but an investigation has been made of the emergency hospital conditions by employees of the state organization who did not make themselves known.

Chairman D. J. Murphy of the Board of Supervisors has taken an active interest in this survey, particularly in the work surrounding the opening of the new tuberculosis sanitarium, which will be ready for occupancy in about two months. Murphy has been particularly interested in this branch of the hospital work of the supervisors because it is located near his home.

TO SUPPORT BOARD.

"I purpose to support the State Board of Charities and Corrections in every way," said Chairman Murphy. "They are performing a great public service and when this is finished we will have a report that will cover every humanitarian activity of the Board of Supervisors and studied from a scientific point of view. This county is facing a time when we have got to make changes in the system that governs all of this work, and I am heartily in favor of the general plan of the State Board to unite all of this work under scientific supervision.

U. S. MAY FIX PRICES FOR STEEL, COAL

BULLETIN.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—A sweeping measure authorizing the federal trade commission, upon direction of the President to fix prices on life's necessities, was introduced in the Senate today by Senator Borah of Idaho, as an amendment to the food control bill.

He would have the price-fixing apply to steel, coal, oil, farm implements, fertilizer, meats, bread, flour and "such other foods as the President may stipulate in a proclamation."

BY UNITED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Congress is preparing for an attack in force on the ramparts of the coal trust.

The Senate interstate commerce committee met today to plan hearings for government regulation of sale, transportation, distribution and, if necessary, requisition of the country's coal supply during the war. The part the railroad play in distribution of the nation's coal supply will be thoroughly gone into. Coal will be officially taken up in Tuesday's meeting.

In order to get speedy action it is possible the bill will be offered as an amendment to the pending food control bill. It gives the President or the Federal Trade Commission full powers of control over the coal situation.

"Prices of coal in many parts of the United States have reached an exorbitant level," Senator Pomerene, who introduced the resolution, said today. In addition to this, a large number of consumers are unable to obtain supplies of this prime necessity.

"Failure to procure coal impairs the health and strength of the people and involves the partial or complete cessation of many industries essential to the supplying of the armed forces with necessary materials and munitions of war."

"As a result of the high prices people of the United States are imposed upon to such an extent as materially to impair their means of sustenance and their financial ability to assist in providing for the national defense."

"There is no question but that this bill will do a great good. The President is firmly behind it and already the coal dealers of the country are beginning to think about its possibilities."

Chairman Newlands explained that as present legislation contemplates control only of food, the committee will consider whether such control should be extended to coal, iron, steel, their products and other raw materials, as well as their transportation.

William Denman, chairman of the Federal Shipping Board, today declared he concurs with Secretary Daniels in the latter's suggestion that the Federal Trade Commission, or "some other authorized body," investigate the whole subject of steel, production and fix a basic price.

The method of procedure will be for the commission to suggest to all iron and steel manufacturers and ore producers that they unite and name a price themselves, subject to the commission's approval. Should they decline to adopt this course the government has power to commandeer the plants.

"I believe that there is no use in trying to correct or patch up any system that now exists. We have outgrown this system. What I am hoping for is that we can get a new system entirely and one that will take in all of this humanitarian work."

IS IT GOING TO BE NECESSARY

for us to call upon the boys of Oakland, who have been drafted by the government, to step in and help us on this campaign? Will we have to ask THEM to go out and solicit for funds after they have already been called upon to offer their lives? It looks that way! It looks as if these boys would be called upon not only to fight OUR fight, but to do our HOME WORK. Citizens, we need help! At the Chamber of Commerce.

WORKERS ASK THAT BUREAU BE KEPT UP

BERKELEY, June 22.—An unusual series of letters received by Superintendent Edward C. Vaine of the municipal labor bureau, the closing of which is being considered by the city council, has offered a new defense against the proposal to discontinue the bureau. The letters, which have been placed in permanent positions, and the writers of each object strenuously to the bureau being put out of business.

Paine has been deluged with these letters since the proposal to discontinue the bureau was made public last week. The writers urge the service given by the bureau both to the unemployed and to citizens needing relief from the closing of the place. One correspondent, who occupies a permanent position found on him by Paine writes in part as follows:

"The littlest thing a more favored and independent man could do against his less fortunate brothers would be to even think of urging the closing of the bureau. Such narrow-minded, little men are the only ones who are not to be trusted. They hurray loudly for millions in cash to carry on 'mercy work,' while they grope and grovel on the request for a paltry thousand dollars to keep the cash to carry on mercy work for another class and this class of local men and women would cost the entire community nearly as much as does the luxury and upkeep of an automobile cost the private owner thereof."

DEFENDERS BUREAU. Another correspondent declares the bureau has been of economic value to the city. He writes:

"You know I have often told you I was sure the bureau had been the means of keeping thousands of dollars in the city. No businessman who has taken an interest in the work of the bureau can doubt this statement."

Lyons, who has been similarly placed by the bureau in a steady position, contends that the bureau was instituted to benefit the working man; that it has succeeded in this aim, and that other considerations should weigh lightly against this one. He adds:

"Nobody would use the city in spending thousands of dollars beautifying school grounds and parks. Doubtless the attractive parks are the eye of the real estate man, but they fail to strike a responsive chord in the hearts of a homeless man with a hungry family at home."

"It is very suggestive," Lyons concludes, "that this move was not made prior to the last city election."

TO DECIDE FATE. The fate of the labor bureau is expected to be decided by the city council Monday afternoon at the city hall. The special investigating committee appointed to look into the bureau will then report. This committee is composed of Police Chief August Volmer, Professor Frank De Cossio, and a representative of the city and county commission.

DRAWBRIDGE ENDS FLIGHT OF YOUNG SPEEDER

ALAMEDA, June 22.—City Clerk R. E. Boshard and the Webster street drawbridge, which has been the scene of a speeding motorcyclist in the person of Martin Paulson of 2764 Foothill boulevard, last night. This morning Paulson was sent to prison for five days by Judge L. R. Weinmann. It was an exciting chase which Paulson's captors along Webster street.

The police first attempted to halt the motorcyclist, who sped away. When they failed, they followed him. When they tried to stop Paulson, but again he escaped capture. City Clerk R. E. Boshard, riding in a high-powered car with a friend, took up the chase across the Webster street marsh. The auto was doing 55 miles an hour, but the motorcyclist was doing still better, and probably would have escaped had not the drawbridge swung open in time to block the road. The city clerk placed the youth under arrest, and he spent last night in prison.

LOSES HUSBAND. GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 22.—Charging Maude I. Goodspeed with all the wiles and cunning of a designing woman, to entrap John W. Goodspeed into illegal marriage with her, Judge Dunham filed an opinion in her suit for divorce presiding today at issue in favor of the defendant.

Mrs. Goodspeed lost everything through the decree of the court, her husband, son, name and fortune. She will receive no alimony, and the trust fund of $40,000 settled upon her prior to the divorce suit will revert to Goodspeed.

When suit for divorce was started Mrs. Goodspeed was forwarded with the claim that her "husband" was worth more than $1,000,000, and she sought alimony in sums upward of $300,000 in addition to the custody of her son and the decree of divorce from a marriage which the court holds never existed.

WOMAN TEACHER REPLACES MAN AT UNIVERSITY

TRIBUNE BUREAU
2015 SHATTUCK AVE.
BERKELEY, June 22.—Already an instance of a woman's replacing a man who has gone off to the war has occurred in the University of California faculty.

It was announced today that Roswell G. Harn will not be a member of the summer session faculty, since he has started for France as a member of the ambulance unit organized by the Intercollegiate Intelligence Bureau. In his place, as a member of the summer session faculty, Miss J. M. Harn will lecture twice daily throughout the summer session, from June 25 to August 4, on the history of English literature.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS HONOR PRESIDENT

TRIBUNE BUREAU
2015 SHATTUCK AVE.
BERKELEY, June 22.—Mrs. Gustavus Schneider, head of the Campfire Girls in California, was informed by telegram today from Dr. Luther Gulick, national president of the order, that President Gulick has accepted an honorary presidency. Dr. Gulick is in receipt of a letter from the president elect, Mrs. Schneider, in which she is commending his work and the work of the Campfire Girls.

As a patriotic portion of their program, in addition to their conservation aims, the Campfire Girls have adopted an official costume and the Berkeley members are proceeding now to make it up. It consists of a white blouse, red tie, dark blue skirt and white sailor hat.

"It eliminates the cost of catering to the individual tastes of the members," in addition to embracing the American colors.

Four clauses are contained in the war time program, which the Campfire Girls have adopted. They are: "Hold on to health. Save food. Care for little children. Be patriotic."

There are now more than 100,000 Campfire Girls in this country. The California membership ranks among the first of the several states.

SNAKE KISS HIM?

LEWISTON, Pa., June 22.—Driven by a forest fire, a giant blacksnake attempted to kiss Fire Warden D. F. Kirk when it met him on a mountain road. After a fierce battle the warden slew the reptile.

Kirk had only a small fork used for piling brush when he saw the snake. And the snake saw him at the same time and rushed to greet him. Kirk struck at it with the fork and penetrated its body near the tail.

Immediately the snake coiled around his hand holding the fork, making it powerless. Then it slowly raised its head to his face and licked its tongue as though trying to salute him with a kiss.

Kirk, with his hand free, tore at the coils of the snake until they were loosened enough for him to free the pined hand. Then he killed the snake with stones. Today he declared that he did not believe the snake meant to harm him, but was joyous at his rescue from the forest fire which was raging in the mountains. The snake was harmless, except for what injury it could do with its coils. It was of a non-poisonous variety.

WHISTLE KILLS HORSE.

SUPPLY, Okla., June 22.—Joe Davis drove a blooded team up to the Santa Fe depot just as engine No. 2, which was carrying a load of livestock, was about to start. One of the horses quivered, sank to the ground and died. A veterinarian said it had died from fright.

This is Red Cross Week.

SUICIDE PACT THEORY IS OPPOSED

BERKELEY, June 22.—The possibility of a suicide pact, explaining the killing of his daughter, Mrs. Phyllis Booth of Seattle, by her husband, J. P. Booth, and the suicide of the wife, was today by A. H. Ricketts, a San Francisco attorney, residing at the Morrell apartments in this city. Ricketts is in charge of the case, which he said he killed his wife and himself because she refused to return to live with him after a separation.

The news of the tragedy has caused a sensation in University of California circles, in which the wife and her sister, Bessie, were formerly prominent. Mrs. Booth was a member for two years of the 1913 class of the university, giving up her studies in May, 1911. Her marriage to Booth took place two years later despite the opposition of her parents.

The bodies of husband and wife were found in a lonely spot near Seattle at an early hour yesterday morning. Police investigation established the fact that Booth had committed first murder and then suicide. The police entertain the theory that Booth enticed her there on a night ride and killed her when she refused to return to his home.

SEPARATION RECENT. Their separation occurred the middle of this month. On June 17 Ricketts received in this city a message from his daughter reading in part as follows:

"I have left J. P. as I felt that I could not stand it any longer. I am staying with a friend at present."

The same day there came a telegram from Seattle which said that Phyllis had disappeared under peculiar circumstances last night. Police working on the case.

The possibility of a suicide pact is advanced by a friend of the family, a Seattle taxicab company, an acquaintance of Booth. Mosher has told the Seattle police that he had seen Booth some time ago the existence of a suicide pact between husband and wife.

CANNOT CONCEIVE PACT. "I cannot conceive a suicide pact agreement between my daughter and her husband," declares Ricketts. "There is no evidence of any such agreement. He murdered her; that is the only possible explanation."

Booth was a mechanical engineer and married his daughter about four years ago. I opposed the match at the time and subsequently, and I even tried to persuade her to leave him. I thought she was overbearing and abusive and I thought she would be happier if they parted."

TAMALPAIS PLAY IN GREEK THEATER. BERKELEY, June 22.—The Greek Theater at the University of California has been selected as the location for producing the great Danish play, "Jeppes on the Hill," tonight, June 27.

The play was given for the first time at the Mount Tamalpais outdoor theater last month before an audience of more than 5000 people. The play is a reproduction of the play have been so great that the directors of the Mount Tamalpais Association decided to reproduce the play in the Greek Theater as a feature of the summer classes now in session at the university.

The proceeds of the play will be devoted to enlarging and beautifying the park on Mount Tamalpais, presented in trust to the University of California by its president, John C. Gilman, for the benefit of the people of California. The object of the play is to help the people realize the beauties of nature have endowed the State with and which lie at the doors of all bay cities.

The mountain play ever is to be given in the Greek Theater. The play will be given as a feature of the summer classes now in session at the university.

PLAN CONCERTS. BERKELEY, June 22.—That a series of "Half-hours of Music" will be given in the Greek Theater every Sunday afternoon throughout the Summer Session, the first recital being on Sunday, June 24, was announced today by the University of California. The "Half-hours of Music" will be open free not only to the students of the Summer Session, but also to the public in general.

The program of music will be given on Sunday afternoon, July 1, at 3 p. m., by a military band. Gilbert Reek, the violinist, will come from Stockton to give the musical class on Sunday, afternoon, July 15. Sunday afternoon, July 15, there will be a special musical program in the Greek Theater in honor of Joaquin Miller Day.

NO "FRAT" TABLES

BERKELEY, June 22.—The University of California will not this summer announce the comparative standing in the fraternities of the different fraternities and house, which has been the cause of much controversy. The withdrawal of a number of the students of grades, without the recording of grades. On this point the University of California has been very firm in its position of announcing these statistics in recent years proved a good stimulus to good scholarship among the fraternity men, and has been of help to them in judging the qualities of chapters inviting them to membership.

FUND IS RAISED

ALAMEDA, June 22.—The Alameda Improvement Club last night announced that the money had been raised for the new street light on Webster street. The club also voted $20 to the Alameda Red Cross fund.

The club has taken up with City Manager C. J. Harn the importance of the city constructing a sidewalk across the Webster street marsh. The walk would obviate the necessity of crossing the marsh being struck by autos, for all pedestrians have to walk in the open road way. The club named E. J. Sargent, H. G. McHenry and C. E. Schilling as a civic committee to cooperate with the new city planning commission.

EDW. BERG WEDS

BERKELEY, June 22.—Word reached Berkeley today at 10:30 a. m. that Edw. Berg, of Kansas, of Edward L. Berg of Berkeley to Miss Leona Short, daughter of D. D. Short of Henderson, Mo. The wedding was performed on June 15, and Mr. and Mrs. Berg are enjoying a honeymoon tour of the middle west before coming to this city to reside temporarily at the Hotel Shattuck.

Berg is editor and proprietor of the Pacific Coast Engineer, a brother of Frank L. Berg, a local undertaker and deputy coroner. He is prominent in fraternal circles in this city as well as in business and civic circles.

BELIEVE BOY DERANGED. ALAMEDA, June 22.—Mr. J. M. Medbury of 3201 Sterling avenue, told Police Judge L. R. Weinmann today that she believed her 12-year-old son, Gordon Medbury, was deranged. Medbury was arrested for the alleged theft of a bicycle, being booked for petty larceny. The authorities are investigating further whether or not the boy is deranged. The mother's belief that the young man is mentally affected, Medbury comes from an excellent family. Medbury is a wealthy importer, was lost in the sinking of the Lusitania.

FOREIGN MINERS HELD IN MEXICO

DOUGLAS, Ariz., June 22.—George Reed, an American mining man, and a British subject, are still virtual prisoners in Sonora for refusing to abide by new governmental regulations alleged to be confiscatory, and American mining properties are being confiscated by wholesale, according to reports gathered from the first influx of Americans fleeing Mexico following what they claim the most extraordinary conditions there since Carranza assumed control.

American mining men from two vast mining properties in Sonora, claim the Mexican government is enforcing confiscatory taxes and other impositions that make further operations of properties impracticable.

"Mexico for Mexicans" is the slogan in Sonora now, these mining men assert, with Adolfo de la Huerta, governor, backing them up.

It is alleged that the Cananea copper plant, largest producer in Mexico, was closed yesterday afternoon when the management refused to discontinue the American foreman, R. L. Budrow, manager of the El Tigre mine, was also forced to close, and returned to Kansas City today.

American here from Sonora report that when the Richardson Construction Company, owners of a big irrigation project in the Yaqui valley, refused to pay confiscatory taxes, the state government closed the mine, and no selling off improved lands to Mexicans.

John Hays Hammond and Harry Payne Whitney of New York own a controlling interest in this project, which is worth $10,000,000. They have spent $100,000 for improvements in the last ten years. It is said.

Because of the high feeling occasioned by property confiscation and the holding of the camp, and the British subjects in the camp are feared between the American miners out of work, about 1200, and Mexican soldiers under De la Huerta.

It is asserted that the newly organized Mexican Congress State Labor Council has the root of much of the trouble. Although formed to act in an advisory capacity to Governor de la Huerta, it has assumed dictatorial powers at the instance, it seems, of De la Huerta himself, Americans declare.

Two features of the program have been arranged. Mrs. Herbert Sanford Howard, dramatic reader, will read the Declaration of Independence, and vocal numbers will be offered by Miss Lydia Sturtevant, who has given a most successful concert in the celebration. The exercises will be held at the University of California, Fourth at San Pablo Park and will continue but one hour. An informal program of games, contests and entertainment will continue through the remainder of the day. The erection of a speakers' stand at the park has been arranged. The Red Cross will conduct refreshment booths on the grounds.

The kits include "little trinkets, trifles and home touches" including sweetmeats, sewing equipment, toilet articles, and other articles to be sent were either made or purchased by the same guild.

Berkeley Is Busy Raising Fund Red Cross Benefits Arranged

TRIBUNE BUREAU
2015 SHATTUCK AVE.
BERKELEY, June 22.—Nearly $5,000 of Berkeley's share of the Red Cross fund of $75,000 remained this noon to be raised, according to reports in the hands of the campaign committee at that hour. Only a little over $20,000 of the allotted amount had been collected to that hour, the donations of a day amounting to about $300.

Among the larger pledges recorded since yesterday noon were the following: Mrs. Lafayette Fish, $500; San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway, $500; Guy Jacobus, $100; E. B. King, $50; E. J. Loudbeck, president Chamber of Commerce, $40; Dr. C. A. Meek, $30; W. S. Wood, $25; William F. Morrish, $25.

The committee was informed that the employees of the American Photo-player Company, will shortly report on a fund they are raising for the Red Cross, reaching the desired amount were planned by the committee.

ASKED TO DO PART. President Chamber of Commerce of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce has summoned the entire membership of that organization to the service of the Red Cross campaign to raise Berkeley's allotment. In an appeal published through the press he has asked all members to do part of the work, and not wait for special invitations or urgings. What the country needs is the service of volunteers, declared President Loudbeck, and it is expected that members of the Chamber of Commerce will respond cheerfully and enthusiastically to the appeal for help, that has gone forth throughout the nation.

It is the desire that every member shall take part, and those who are willing to do so are requested to report at Red Cross headquarters, 2138 University avenue, for instructions and cards to record subscriptions. To begin the campaign a number of members who have signified a desire to participate in the campaign have been named as committees.

BENEFITS ARRANGED. Numerous benefit entertainments are being held in the interest of the local Red Cross fund raising campaign, where the amount realized by admissions is being turned over to the treasurer of the local chapter.

A benefit entertainment will be given in the Burbank school, University avenue and Curtis street, beginning at 8 o'clock this evening. Mrs. W. Pascoe is in charge of the arrangements and reports that a pleasing program has been prepared. The receipts will be donated to the Red Cross campaign fund.

The order of the State held a whist party in Native Sons Hall last night in behalf of the Red Cross, and the Order of the Eastern Star has given several card parties and entertainments at which good amounts have been realized.

RUNAWAY INJURY RESULTS IN DEATH

BERKELEY, June 22.—As the result of injuries sustained in a runaway accident on the University of California campus last Monday, W. A. Cosby of 901 Bush street, San Francisco, died yesterday at Roosevelt Hospital. He had been unconscious most of the time since the accident until 5:30 last evening, when he succumbed to his injuries. Arrangements for the funeral are being made today.

Cosby was struck by a runaway team being driven by Lee Young of 2130 Shattuck avenue, and received a fracture of the skull and several ribs, besides other internal injuries. Dr. J. Griffin of 1713 Dwight way sustained an ankle fracture when he jumped from the seat beside Young.

MRS. MORTON TO ANSWER LAWSUIT

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Overruling the demurrer filed by attorneys for Dr. Ada Scott Morton, San Jose physician, Superior Judge E. P. Morgan yesterday allowed her ten days in which to file answer to the suit brought by her husband, Dr. Andrew W. Morton, in which he seeks to recover $70,000 worth of property deeded to her by him five months ago.

The deposition, taken by Attorney Theodore Roche for the husband from 54 "Strander" Lewis, wrestler, about which much secrecy has wound itself and the contents of which have never been made public, will not be brought forth to the common gaze until the case actually comes to trial. Much speculation has been aroused as to just what connection Lewis may have with the case and the two physicians.

Attorneys for both sides refuse to discuss the hearing, but the professional wrestler's deposition may have on the case. Mrs. Morton's demurrer said in part that the charge of broken marital vows made by the husband were too vague and indefinite. Judge Morgan holds that the charge is clear and definite. Dr. Morton claims that he deeded the property to his wife through her fraud and misrepresentation.

CHILD IS INJURED. BERKELEY, June 22.—Painful injuries were sustained by John Francis O'Connell, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Connell of 1624 Francisco street, when he was struck this morning by a Standard Oil truck at Delaware and California streets. The boy's legs were badly lacerated and he was otherwise bruised. His injuries being dressed at Roosevelt hospital. According to C. Perkins, 1717 Walnut street, driver of the truck, the boy ran in front of it from behind another automobile and was struck before Perkins could bring his machine to a stop.

WEDDING ANNOUNCED. SAN LEANDRO, June 22.—Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Mary Rego, daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Rego of Davis street and Carl Perkins, Sousa, which will take place in St. Leander's church at 3 o'clock Saturday, June 30. A reception will be given the newlyweds by their friends in the I. D. E. hall on Orchard avenue on the evening of that day.

Some idea can be formed of the amount involved in such an undertaking with our knowledge that our Government has thrown its magnificent organization, has advanced $350,000,000 for relief in Belgium. If there were no thought of protection and provision for our own people in France, can we hesitate to provide generously from our plenty that we may show some appreciation of our everlasting debt to the people of our sister republic?"

First Duty With Red Cross, Says
Dr. W. S. Porter

Upwards of 25,000 American men are now on the battlefields of Europe, fighting as volunteers in the allied armies; soon there will be 50,000 more. The Government must therefore be prepared to take care of their number. All our National Guard is to be mobilized, our regular army is to be recruited to full strength, and 600,000 other men are shortly to be called to arms. We must be prepared to supply them with food and will have in service an army of 1,000,000 and a navy of 150,000 men. "These men must have our best. To prepare against their needs we must advance our production of food and arms and automobiles. Cross must undertake. Doctors, nurses, ambulances, must be made ready. Vast quantities of hospital stores, linen, and other necessities must be made ready. Men must be prepared at all once. If we wait, it may be too late. When we ask our sons and brothers to fight for our liberty and our country, we must be ready to take care of them. We must be ready to take care of them in their day of suffering."

MANY IN ATTENDANCE.

The meeting was attended by women from all over the county to the number of about thirty. The speakers urged personal contributions to the Red Cross fund, active efforts on behalf of the big drive which ends June 25, both as team captains and volunteers, and the giving of both time and money to the project for saving the nation's wounded soldiers and those of the allies. At the conclusion of the meeting, the names of the women who were anxious to do in the work were taken by the presiding officer and the women ordered to report to the general headquarters.

IT MAY BE YOUR LAD OR YOUR FRIEND'S

YOUR DOLLAR
MAY SAVE A HUMAN LIFE

By Gene Baker.

When her debonair young son came home one day and told her he had enlisted she suffered abominably. She was almost a Spartan mother—not quite; it was not until the next day that she went around with a smile that enabled her to smile. Until he boards the train with the troops she will continue to play her heroic role. Yet at night she is haunted by visions of him lying neglected on some battlefield—thirst, tortured.

"We will take care of your son," says the Red Cross.

"If he is wounded on the field, we will bring him away on a stretcher. Our volunteer Florence Nightingales who are giving themselves to this service will be the nurses. They will hold water to his lips."

"But if there is no money for this work; if there is not enough money to reach him; if he is just beyond the last man you are able to reach—Aren't you in great need of money?" she asks the great organization of mercy.

EVERY BIT HELPS.

"If he is the man beyond—if the dollars give out before we reach him—why then? But the money must be subscribed. We need it—we need it desperately. If we do not get it, we do not secure that hundred million men will die needlessly and limbs will be amputated unnecessarily, simply because there was no aid waiting the moment it was urgently wanted. If we do not get that hundred million, such devastation will be wrought upon our armies that we will not be able to keep the war on the other continent. Without men abroad—and there are not so very many sons like yours, when you think how they have been mown down—how shall we protect our home shores from invasion? You see, we must have the hundred million. Will you help?"

"Yes, I will help—but what can I do?"

"You have given your son to this war. Now if you will save your son from preventable death you will subscribe for a little white button with a cross of red on it. If you cannot subscribe you can get your neighbor to subscribe. In that inferno to which he is going a remarkable percentage of wounded French soldiers have been saved by the Red Cross. Help—for your own lad."

However you feel about wars, wherever your heart is, or whatever your mind is focused on, the work of the Red Cross must enlist your support, your sympathy, your admiration. This is the thing you can do for humanity. No service is asked of you when you subscribe—only your money.

"THE MAN BEYOND."

If you haven't two dollars, you can give one. If you give five times that you will help that much more. Remember that your backing is needed now and imperatively. This is the moment to bury your petty desires, to forget your prejudices and to make some sacrifice.

Many of you can save lives and limbs without sacrifice. The price of some luxury may save life. Think of some one thing you meant to buy and did not need. Subscribe that money to the Red Cross. For your service to the wounded you will sleep better nights. If you need a selfish motive to make you send in your subscription at once, why find that selfish motive.

The point is—do it at once, for now. The war is over, the tragedies are ahead. Think of those who need the hundred million.

CONVICTS BUILD
HIGHWAY SECTION

The section of state highway between Garberville and Carmichael, which is being built by convict labor, will be completed the latter part of July. State Highway Commissioner James E. Power today said that the highway between Garberville and Eureka, which will virtually complete the highway between Sausalito and Eureka. A great celebration in which Governor Stephens and many state officials will participate will mark the finish of the work, which has cost the state $200,000. Private engineers had estimated that the cost would be $338,000. This section of the highway traverses the northern part of Humboldt county and the southern part of Colusa county.

Stern said 650 convicts had been used on this road working during the past twenty months. During that period only fourteen prisoners had tried to escape, and twelve of them were recaptured. He praised the work of the convicts highly and declared many of the men would be recommended for pardon or parole as the result of the faithfulness they had shown.

PONY EVIDENCE SEEK FUGITIVES

With a small pony as evidence against him Frank Wildermood appeared before Police Judge George Samuels today to answer to a charge of cruelty to animals. It was alleged that the pony had not properly fed. The pony was tied to a pole in front of the city hall, where the Court viewed it in passing upon the case. After a hearing the matter was continued for two months at the end of which time the pony will be brought before the Court for the purpose of proving what treatment it has had in the meantime.

TO DRINK AGAIN

SPOKANE, Wash., June 22.—Spokane today is renewing its supply of liquid refreshment cut off when the county auditor refused to issue more liquor permits after the prohibition law went into effect. Superior Court Judge Hurn today said that M. A. Newton is entitled to a permit pending the counting of the referendum petition against the bonedry law and granted Newton's prayer for a writ of mandamus to compel the auditor to issue permits.

HEADS RAILWAY

NEW YORK, June 22.—James R. Gorman, who began his railroad career as a clerk, was today elected president of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad at a meeting of the directors. Gorman has been chief executive of the road under the receivership. He was also elected a director, succeeding W. B. Thompson, resigned. E. K. Boies of Chicago was elected a director, succeeding J. S. Alexander, resigned.

Big Drive For Mercy Fund
Starts Officially Tomorrow

Many Small Contributions to Red Cross Made in Oakland; Larger Ones Are Sought

The big drive of the National Red Cross starts officially tomorrow so far as Oakland is concerned, according to Joseph H. King, chairman in charge of the general committee. By that time the committee organization will have been perfected, all volunteers tabulated and instructed and the work fully under way.

Promptly at 8:30 tomorrow morning more than 100 well-armed and fully-equipped teams, each under a team captain, and these in turn acting under the direction of the division heads, will start out for the house-to-house and office-to-office canvass that is expected to touch the purse of every one of the city's 200,000 population before June 25, the closing day of the drive.

Upon the shoulders of this committee organization rests the work of gathering $200,000, which is Oakland's allotment of the $100,000,000 national fund for the care and protection of the wounded of this country and the allies. While it is estimated that more than $20,000 was collected before noon today through the individual effort of the various volunteers, the exact amount cannot be determined owing to the fact that many of the team captains carry pledges which will be turned in during the afternoon and swell this total.

HUNDRED TEAMS TO WORK.

Tomorrow the big campaign starts in earnest," said Chairman King today. "We expect to have 100 teams working out of the Chamber of Commerce alone, under direction of Captain Joseph E. Caine, with numerous teams to be formed during the day from the scores of volunteers who are pouring in upon us. The response to our call for assistance has been wonderful. If the contribution come the same way we will be able to do our share of the proceeds is directed to Red Cross work. The war fund committee of the Red Cross endorsed these films and has set aside Friday night as Red Cross night at the T. and D."

"I believe that Oakland will reach her $200,000 quota providing the big contributors come through as planned. The small contributors are certainly doing their part. We are anxious to

EAGLES TO HOLD
OUTING SUNDAY

Everything is in readiness for the great gathering of California Eagles to be held next Sunday in Shell Mound Park under the auspices of Golden Gate Aerie, No. 61. Plans for the accommodation of more than 3000 guests have been made. The reception committee will be assisted by fifty members of the women's auxiliary of Golden Gate Aerie, headed by Mrs. William Brumfield. As the outing will be distinctly a family affair, women and children will be admitted to the grounds free of charge.

Degraded teams from more than a score of bay city aerics will participate in the special military exercises, and will be reviewed by the officers of the Grand Aerie of Eagles.

Games, races and athletic events, featured by a special 100-yard dash, in which Supervisors Andrew J. Gallagher, James E. Power, Ralph McLehman and Fred Suhr will start, will be held during the afternoon, and dancing will continue until dark.

The general committee includes: Thomas K. McCarthy, chairman; Ellis A. Blackman, vice-chairman; Louis Whitman, treasurer; James M. Shields, secretary; Thomas G. Riley, James E. Power, J. J. Cusack, Theo. Lundstedt, Walter Shannon, George A. Duddy, William E. Kennedy, John L. Herget, Henry Ingerson, C. E. A. Creighton, John Shinkwin, James G. Conlan and L. B. Regan.

BENCH WARRANTS FOR HUSBANDS

Bench warrants were issued today for two delinquent husbands by Superior Judge J. J. Trabucco. The men being sought are William N. Kidwell and Carl Bennett.

Kidwell is alleged to have failed to have made alimony payments to his wife, Eva L. Kidwell, pending her action for divorce.

Bennett is alleged to have failed to head a court order to show cause why he should not support his wife, Mable Bennett, pending suit for divorce.

The two plaintiffs were in court this morning in connection with their actions for divorce. Neither Kidwell nor Bennett appeared, although summons had been issued.

SUSPECT CAUGHT

LOS ANGELES, June 22.—With three suitcases containing loot valued at $5000, Carl von Weidow arrested in Los Angeles in March as a German spy suspect, was rearrested today in San Diego after his escape from the county hospital here three weeks ago.

Von Weidow, the officers say, acted as a "hench" for a big burglar gang in Los Angeles, and practically all the loot, ranging from jewelry and silver plate to physicians' instruments, has been identified as stolen in this city.

Von Weidow was arrested in San Diego when he attempted to pawn half a dozen diamonds.

ASKS FOR FUNDS.

VALLEJO, June 22.—Captain James R. McCauley of the Vallejo Red Cross chapter sent some placards over to Mare Island today asking the navy yard employees to assist in raising the $20,000 war relief fund in this city.

secure as many workers at the Chamber of Commerce, which is the starting point for the drive, as possible by tomorrow morning. We want persons who can start companies of ten or fifteen among their friends who will aid us in this work. While many are already in the field, we need many more, and we are calling for volunteers.

WOMEN DO GOOD WORK.

Mrs. Jack Martin and Miss Helen Bon, one of the Chamber of Commerce teams working in the Hotel Oakland, gathered subscriptions amounting to $147.25 between noon and 3 o'clock yesterday. This was declared one of the most successful of the day, as they had only a small table in the lobby and merely asked passersby to contribute.

Another Chamber of Commerce team that felt proud over its day's work was that captained by Mrs. A. G. Tasheira. This squad net $74.10 in the banks of the city. Stationing themselves at tables in the banks, the women of Mrs. Tasheira's team aroused great interest in the Red Cross work. Mrs. Tasheira was assisted by Mrs. Russell Lowry, Mrs. Paul Dimmore, Miss Marguerite Black, Miss Pauline Adams, Mrs. Henry Kahn Zeimer and Mrs. Glickman.

GAINS CASH. PLEDGES.

Paul Ocker went to the Chamber of Commerce the close of his day's work with both hands full of subscription cards and money. He carried pledges for $1600 and checks and cash for $1500.

Seth T. Heney will deliver his celebrated address, "American Dollars vs. German Bayonets; Contribute or Pay Tribute," at the T. and D. theater Friday night. The famous Red Cross films will be shown at the same time. Wherever these films are shown a portion of the proceeds is directed to Red Cross work. The war fund committee of the Red Cross endorsed these films and has set aside Friday night as Red Cross night at the T. and D."

FARMERS FORM
NEW LOAN BODY

Seventeen farmers organized the first national farm loan association in Alameda county this week when they agreed to ask a loan of $40,000 from the Farmers' Federal Loan Bank. The new organization is known as the Washington-Eden Townships National Farm Loan Association. The money borrowed by the association will be used by the farmers in improving their farms.

Arrangements are now under way for the farm survey to be held Tuesday when the 2500 farmers in Alameda county will be visited by members of the farm bureau in 100 automobiles for the purpose of learning the financial and labor needs of the farmers.

LOCAL PLANTS ARE WARNED OF BOMBS

Alameda county plants engaged in the building of ships and construction of war equipment received warning today from General Leonard Wood's department that German secret agents are at work on plots to install highly inflammable bombs where they will do great harm.

The bombs are described as pyramidal in shape and marked with the words, "Advance special cooled beef. Frigorifico, Argentina, Central, Buenos Aires." On the container is the picture of an ox. According to federal agents it is difficult to find such bombs unless special watch is kept over all individuals entering and leaving industrial plants. It would not be difficult for German spies to carry into the plants bombs enclosed in their lunch baskets or under their coats.

SINGER IS WEDDED

W. A. Andrews, Oakland attorney and University of California graduate and Miss Arle Ocker were married last night at the First Congregational church in Alameda. Rev. C. L. Mears officiated. The couple were attended by Miss Evelyn Hour and Herbert A. Stout, a university classmate of Andrews. The bride was given away by her stepfather, C. E. Jones, of Lovelock, Nev. About twenty-five guests witnessed the ceremony. Mrs. Andrews is a member of the First Congregational church choir and is well known in Oakland. What President Wilson

President Woodrow Wilson, head of the American Red Cross, in creating the Red Cross War Council, expressed the following opinion which should be of interest to every citizen in the United States:

"The best way in which to impart the greatest efficiency and energy to the relief work which this war will entail will be to concentrate it in the hands of a single experienced organization, which has been recognized by law and international convention as the public instrumentality for such purpose. I hereby call upon all who can contribute either great sums or small to the alleviation of the suffering and distress which must inevitably arise out of this fight for humanity and democracy, to contribute to the Red Cross."

Alameda Working to Raise
Big Total For Red Cross
Auto Parade and Band Concert Will Stimulate Interest Tonight

ALAMEDA, June 22.—With two days more in which to raise the $25,000 Red Cross allotment, the Alameda workers are making every possible effort and appeal to secure the desired amount. The campaign committee announced yesterday that the total desired would fall far short unless Alamedans came more generously and untidily to the front with their subscriptions.

Tonight a Red Cross band and auto demonstration will take place. All auto owners are asked to meet by at 6:45 o'clock to parade for an hour through the Alameda streets. Tomorrow will be Red Cross day at Neptune Beach when the biggest crowd in the history of the resort is expected to be on hand to help swell the Red Cross receipts. There will be no set program at the beach, save an abundance of bands for dancing and concert purposes.

In its canvass for funds the campaign committee has encountered several hundred people who argue that they did their bit in purchasing tickets for social activities alleged to have been planned for the benefit of the Red Cross. A number of these so-called Red Cross benefactors have so far yielded no money to the Red Cross organization, while others have made contributions. The Red Cross organization will probably take steps to have all Red Cross benefactors given directly in future in order to avoid disappointment and confusion.

THIEVES ROB BANK

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., June 22.—The Bank of Waynesville, county seat of Putaski county, was robbed of $1300 early this morning by three men, who blew open the safe and escaped in an automobile. The bandits cut the telephone wires leading from Waynesville to nearby towns. A reward of $600 has been offered for their arrest.

A RED CROSS
APPEAL

By JOSEPH H. KING,

Chairman Red Cross War Fund Committee

To the Women of Oakland

Oakland is in danger of falling down in her effort to raise her $200,000 allotment for the Red Cross.

The only factor that can save us, as I see it, is the work of the women. I believe if 200 more women of Oakland would give us their efforts for the next three days we might make it—otherwise we are gone.

AND WHAT A PITY IT IS!

With only enough Red Cross supplies for one great battle, with humanity throughout Europe calling—yes, screaming—for help.

With a million of our fine, big, strong, patriotic American boys ready to lay down their lives for OUR liberty.

With a city we are proud of—a city of splendid prosperous industries and of great wealth,

With a lesser allotment, per capita, by one-half than San Francisco;

With all these facts before us, is Oakland, our City Oakland, your city and my city, going to be a slacker in this campaign?

"What can I do?" you ask.

You can subscribe $25, or $50, or $100, or $1000 at the rate of $5, $10, $20 or $200 a month if you wish.

You can persuade eight or ten of your friends to do the same.

If you're a woman you can keep after your husband, brother, father or sweetheart so persistently that he will give you a hundred dollars at the rate of $20 or $25 a month to SHUT UP!

You can get your club together and work among your neighbors and get them to subscribe so much a month for four months.

You can make your groceryman, milkman, butcher and baker SHOW HIS RECEIPT for a subscription.

Fighting is hard-hearted business—war is without conscience—wounds care not whose money bought the bandages—a miser's dollar buys just as good gauze through the Red Cross as the widow's mite.

MAKE all of your men friends subscribe. Pet them, coax them, pester them—you women know how, get them to do SOMETHING and when at last they say, "All right, I'll give $20," you should answer, "That's fine, of course, you mean $20 a month for four months—that's just $80."

That's the way to do it.

The cause justifies the means.

Don't be too easy on them.

If the amount hurts, so much the better, then it is a REAL sacrifice.

Stay home from that Fourth of July trip and get even.

Blanks, instructions, etc., at the Chamber of Commerce. We want 200 women to report tomorrow who will promise to raise $500 each before Monday night, at the rate of $125 a month if preferable.

This is the only way to save Oakland in this campaign.

It is up to the women to push the ball over the hill!

Will you volunteer?

J. H. KING, Chairman.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET

With cantaloupe shipments increasing daily, cantaloupes are settling cheaper and weaker in the market. Small cantaloupes from the previous growing grounds reached the local market at 10 cents, supplementing the already large supply of cantaloupes from the new growing grounds. The selling at the present time, bringing range of $3.75 to $4.00 per hundred. Small cantaloupes are selling at $3.25 and $3.50 per hundred. Cherries arriving in poor condition, the market is settling lower. The local supply was very small on the trees. Any quantity of this variety brought 5 and 6 cents the pound. Strawberry season is well advanced, with dealers holding large quantities anywhere from 10 to 15 cents the pound. Blackberries, logans and raspberries are also coming in. Peaches were present in large quantity, although they held at previous quotations during early flowering time. Dealers sold cantaloupes at 8 and 10 cents 75 cents later in the day. A large quantity of 10 cents to $1.25 cleaned out the market. Apples and plums were present in small quantity.

Large shipments of Winters and Brentwood Apples arrived. Winters brought 25 cents and Brentwood 20 cents.

Usually large supply of poultry brought quotations down slightly. Large hen commands 12 to 15 cents. Small medium colored exchange 10 to 19 and 20 cents. Live turkeys arrived in fair quantity. Dealers are anxious to get them to good advantage at 10 to 22 cent range.

AID RED CROSS, PRESIDENT URGES

NEW YORK, June 22.—Red Cross week and its significance in the war was characterized by President Wilson in a message read at a dinner here to stimulate the organization's work throughout the country, as a rare privilege to prove their unselfishness and the spirit of sacrifice.

"I am interested to learn of the dinner which the Red Cross committee has planned for tonight," the President said. "During this week the American people will have a unique privilege of manifesting America's unselfishness as well as the real spirit of sacrifice which animates our people. I am sure the people of New York will do their part, but I hope they will measure their generosity of their gifts by the urgency of the need."

Lord Northcliffe, head of the British departmental mission in the United States, had to leave the dinner to attend a reception to the Italian commission, but a letter from him was read. In it he said:

"American Red Cross workers have established for themselves a unique reputation on the battlefields of France and Belgium. I am confident that those who are now setting out across the sea will maintain the American reputation for valor and self-sacrifice which has already been gained by your nation by the pioneer Red Cross workers who fell in 1914, 1915 and 1916."

After a toast to President Wilson had been drunk, Charles C. Hughes, the postmaster, emphasized the necessity for a "great auxiliary army of relief," since the great army and navy is being equipped.

Major General J. Franklin Bell, commanding the Department of the East, demanding that the nation that is not willing to fight for its rights soon will have no rights to fight for.

"There never was a nation more patient and forbearing than ours has been during this war, but we could not keep out of it," he said.

"Our President in those wonderful words has stated that we are in the war for democracy. Democracy has never won from autocracy a single concession without having except at the point of the sword."

GENERAL EMBARGO IS NOT INTENDED

NEW YORK, June 22.—No general embargo on exports from the United States is intended, either on any particular class of articles or against any particular country, Dr. E. B. Pratt, chief of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, declared here. Dr. Pratt came from Washington to confer with officials of the New York bureau. He said the term "export control" was preferable to "embargo."

"The underlying objects of the export control do not seem to be clearly understood," Dr. Pratt said. "As I construe them, they were directed to conserve the products of the United States, the export of which for any reason should be restricted; to conserve tonnage; to prevent any American products from reaching Germany, either directly or indirectly. Thus, I believe, covers the general principles involved."

NEW YORK, June 22.—Francis B. Sayre, son-in-law of President Wilson, has been appointed to serve as Young Men's Christian Association secretary with the American troops in France. It was announced here, and will sail soon with about twenty-five other men who have been chosen for this work, in response to calls from Paris. Mrs. Sayre will spend the summer with Mr. Sayre's brother, the Rev. J. Nevill Sayre.

BUFFALO, June 22.—Nearly one-half of Buffalo's army of workers are making things useful to the country in the war, it is believed the state census just completed will show.

Thousands are employed at the chemical, shell, motor and aeroplane plants here, while more than two-thirds of the hundreds of smaller factories have shut in the last two years to the making of war supplies of various descriptions.

STRANGER, IN JAIL, POLICE MYSTERY

SAN DIEGO, June 22.—The local police have made public the fact that since Monday they have had in confinement a prisoner, known as Albert E. Dietz, in whose case the federal authorities have been interested, but about whom little in the way of connections has been found. Since his arrest Dietz, according to several physicians who have examined him, has feigned paralysis and has not eaten or drunk anything.

Dietz came under the observation of the police several days before his arrest, as the result of a story told to the police by a foreigner whose name is withheld and who alleged that Dietz had proposed a trip to Mexico, ostensibly to begin a journey to Germany through Spain with funds collected in this country.

Telegrams sent all over the country brought an answer from Los Angeles which said that Dietz, and answering the description of the prisoner was wanted there for alleged complicity in burglaries and for escaping. The Los Angeles prisoner, escaped, the police said, by feigning paralysis until he saw a chance to walk out of the hospital.

COOK SAVES COIN

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Two shots from the revolver of a cook in Christ's restaurant, 395 Geary street, at 4:30 this morning caused one of two holdup men to drop two fistfuls of coin which he was scooping from the cash register and both fled in haste.

Angelo Nicholas, night manager, was clearing a table when the two robbers entered. One of them held a revolver at Nicholas' head while the other opened the cash register and began to scoop up the contents. Neither had seen Salvatore Pucari, the cook. He took a gun and fired. One of the shots hit the cash register and the robber who had the money already in his hands dropped it all over the floor. No shots were fired by the armed highwayman.

To the Women of Oakland

The other day we showed our realization of the fact that war was serious business by pitching several billions of dollars into Uncle Sam's outstretched hat. Those billions are to create an American army which will decide on European battlefields whether or no liberty is to endure upon this earth. Now comes a second vital call—for more millions to equip a Red Cross Hospital Corps to serve that army in France.

There came to me, a few days ago, a letter from my son who is with the American destroyer flotilla in the Irish Sea; a few words of which I should like to quote: "If we happen to be sunk, I want you to know that we shall all go down shouting. Every man aboard stands ready to do his full duty. That is the spirit of the ship."

It may be that my son will be killed—as eight of his cousins have been killed in the trenches. He is willing to take that chance. I am willing to have him take it; am proud to think of him as one stone in the strong wall that will hold back barbaric war from our immediate frontiers. But I am not willing that he or any other man's son should be forced to take one chance—that is of enduring the unnecessary agonies suffered by millions of wounded through faulty medical service during the early stages of the war; and if he and others are not to take it, then the Red Cross call for funds must be quickly and bountifully answered.

We have all heard about "doing our bit." Properly interpreted, it means that every man, woman, boy and girl in the land must do the helpful thing which is nearest at hand. This happens to be, at present, the Red Cross work, in which women can give equal service with men. It is, indeed, woman's natural work. Throughout the ages she has cared for the sick of the race, nursed its battle-wounded; in every girl-child at play with her doll is typified the American mother whose son, husband or brother may soon be stricken in battle. Later on thousands of girls will be needed for the hospital staffs, and when the call goes out the young womanhood of the nation will not be found wanting. But before they can go we must have the money, and in the getting of it woman can help with committees, subscriptions, publicity work.

Whenever, in the past, Oakland has contributed to a public undertaking, her women have always done their share. If the good name of our city is to be maintained, if she is to give not only her allotted quota but much more to the Red Cross fund, it will be because her women again take hold. In going about it, remember that while the "Liberty Loan" supplied the "sinews of war," the Red Cross subscription is the backbone of mercy. A dollar given now may save a life tomorrow. Though a good subscription may not have the sentimental value of a "cool hand on a fevered brow," it will get larger results.

Neighbors and friends, men and women, you remember how we stood together during the earthquake and fire, the friendship, sympathy and co-operation developed during those trying days? The fates have put it up to us again! Come on through!
